

MAY SOLVE HORST CASE

ARGUMENT IS ALL THAT IS NEEDED—ROGERS

(Special To The News)

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Want to show you how a thing in our country can accidentally gain prominence. Last Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock I was sitting in the senate gallery talking to Senator Copeland. Senator Norris

WILL ROGERS has just finished on Hughes, and they were ready to vote. Senator Bleuse asked that it be left over till morning. It was just a formality. There was practically no opposition.

If voted on then there would have been nothing to it, but now look at it? It just shows that if you can start arguing over something, and get enough publicity, and keep the argument going, you can divide our nation over night as to whether spinach or broccoli are the most nutritious. We can get hot and bothered quicker over nothing, and cool off faster than any nation in the world.

Yours,
WILL.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Pa New has always been of the opinion that three months of daylight savings time—June, July and August—are enough, and that nothing is accomplished by extending the advanced time into May and September. It is anticipated that the conference between school board committee and industrial heads will result in this change being made for New Castle this summer, instead of the five months program as was decreed last summer. Public sentiment is overwhelmingly for the shorter period of daylight savings time, and the curtailed period makes it so that there is no interference with the school system hours.

Pa New wonders of any maple sugar camps in Lawrence county have opened yet. These warm days, followed by frost nights have resulted in numerous camps in other counties being re-opened. Reports are that the run of sap this year is heavier than in previous years.

Now since the spring-like weather is here it is supposed that fire drills will be resumed at the different school buildings. Winter weather makes it dangerous to do so. To stage them periodically is a measure that adds all the more to the safety of the pupils.

Robert Bryson of 310 North street reports to the News that while his wife was scrubbing the back porch Thursday morning, she found a butterfly, but didn't believe it was alive. She took it into the house, where on a short while, it began to move about and was found to be very much alive. Another sign of early spring! Mr. Bryson also states that if anyone wishes proof, they can go down to his house and see it for themselves.

Residents of the Neshannock avenue district must have felt considerably relieved yesterday, when the ice went off the creek without piling up huge cakes in their back yards, and filling their cellars with water. The results of the Roseana dam removal were clearly demonstrated and all possible danger from this source is believed removed as it would take several weeks of zero weather to freeze the ice thick enough to cause any further damage.

Last night's first aid contest by the Bell Telephone company was a sort of reunion of former New Castle men who have advanced to higher positions with the company. H. R. Clegg, former plant superintendent now occupying a similar position in the Pittsburgh district was in charge, while Tom Campbell, a former East Side boy who is safety director of the

Two Bandits Die In Chicago's War On Crime Forces

Two Others Are Probably Fatally Wounded In Attack By Posse

CONCERTED DRIVE ON UNDERWORLD

Three Thousand Underworld Characters Are Taken During 24 Hours

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Two bandits slain outright and two more near death of bullet wounds was the toll today in Chicago's war on organized crime as posses of citizens joined with police in the campaign against crime and violence.

A tradesman shot and killed a bandit believed to be Manfred Blunt of El Paso, Texas, when he and an accomplice attempted to raid a sales agency last night. The second bandit escaped wounded.

Police killed an unidentified negro in a gun battle following a taxicab holdup.

Trap Burglars.
A posse of police, firemen and citizens trapped two burglars who broke into a dwelling. One of them, Kenneth Prevost, was injured and his accomplice captured.

The shootings came as the climax to the fifth day of a concerted drive against the underworld in which 3000 underworld characters were last taken into custody during the twenty-four hours ending at midnight last night.

Twenty-seven gunmen taken in the police drive are to be arraigned today. Penitentiary terms await the defendants if convicted. Included among them are the first of the "big shots" of gangdom that have fallen into the Pay Employees In Chicago, Ill.

Eighteen Thousand Get Pay Checks After Six Weeks Delay

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Chicago handed 18,000 city employees a Valentine today.

The staffs of City Clerk Charles Peterson and City Comptroller George K. Schmidt rushed joyfully to the City Hall today to begin drawing up pay checks, calling for real money, to be handed out later today after six dismal weeks of anxiety and poverty without pay.

City Clerk Peterson wrote the inscription on the Valentine when he decided to take the funds from the city's corporate fund and the vehicle tax fund pending sale of 1930 tax anticipation warrants.

As the word spread quickly around the city that money was once more in the city treasury and ready to be distributed, great was the rejoicing among firemen, policemen, school and other employees.

The police responded, it would appear, by relentless drives against hoodlums and gunmen, the capture of two bandits and three youths armed with guns, and the arrest of 600 more persons for investigation in the five-day drive which has netted more than 3,000.

Hold Faster Is Not Sane

WARREN, O., Feb. 14.—Richard Stewart, who has been on a hunger strike here for 30 days, was adjudged insane Thursday.

His strike probably will be terminated today in Massillon State hospital.

Probate Judge S. W. Jones decided on Stewart's sanity in a hearing, and ordered two doctors to examine him. Commitment to the state hospital probably will be made today, Judge Jones said.

Stewart's hunger strike began when he was sent to county jail for refusal to pay $200 fine on his conviction on a charge of molesting a woman.

The strike was his protest to what he called the "unfairness" of the penalty. He alleged the woman was partly responsible for his actions.

Doctors who examined Stewart found him in serious condition. He was removed to City Hospital from the county jail yesterday.

POLICE BEING MASSED TO CHECK TAXI STRIKE TROUBLE

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 14.—Police from eight city districts were ordered massed at the East Liberty station of the Pennsylvania and the surrounding neighborhood today, as "the law" prepared to greet any mobs of strikers or sympathizers in the thirty-fourth day of the taxicab strike.

Yesterday saw the violence, that had been sporadic until then, reach new heights when mobs for a short while in the afternoon got beyond police control and forced the officers of the law to use tear gas bombs to disperse.

The mob had gathered after alleged strike sympathizers overturned a Green Cab, beat the driver and set fire to the cab.

Other outbursts yesterday brought the total wounded in the strike since its inception to 185, 29 of which were hospital cases.

The most seriously injury reported to date was suffered by a passenger in a cab stoned from the street. He is Charles Shondman, of Cleveland, and may lose his sight, physicians said.

Rochester Team Wins Telephone Company Contest

Noses Out Team From Sharon After Both Tie For First Place In First Aid Test

HUGE CROWD AT ANNUAL CONTEST

Rochester's Maintenance team, captained by J. H. Porter, was declared the winner of the annual first aid contest for teams of the New Castle district of the Bell Telephone company which was held at the Elks club last evening.

Six teams were entered in the finals. Two each from Rochester, Sharon and New Castle, and they were given three difficult problems, which brought out all of the possibilities that might happen in case of a serious accident.

After the results had been tabulated, it was found that the Rochester team and the Sharon Line Force team captained by George Means were a tie with an average of 98.2-3 per cent, while the New Castle Maintenance force team, captained by R. H. Alexander, was third with 98.1-3 per cent. It was necessary to put on another problem to decide the winner of first and second place, the Rochester team winning out with a final average of a half per cent over their Sharon opponents.

V. L. Dambach, chairman of the employe representatives, was chairman of the evening, the contest having been arranged under the direction of C. A. Bolen, district plant superintendent. Dr. R. R. Jones, chief medical officer of the western area of Pittsburgh, presided as chief judge.

Awards Safety Trophies.
Preceding the first aid contest, the 1929 safety awards were made by H. R. Clegg, district plant superintendent of the Pittsburgh district, former plant superintendent in New Castle.

These awards consisted of the following:

Mayor Kline Turns Deaf Ear To Plea For Police Guards

Pittsburgh Mayor Refuses To Authorize Armed Police Guards For Taxi Cabs

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 14.—Mayor Charles H. Kline today refused the request of the Parmelee transportation company to place uniformed police guards on taxi-cabs to replace the deputy sheriffs now riding beside the drivers.

The deputies are armed with night sticks only, and transportation company officials feel that armed guards are essential following the outbreaks of rioting yesterday in the wake of stone throwing and cab-upsetting in the east end and East Liberty districts.

Sheriff Robert S. Cain announced that he is considering arming his deputies now on cab duty, while Mayor Kline stood silent under criticism from merchants and business men that there was more protection needed than city police are giving.

The outburst here yesterday was characterized as the worst since the infamous Homestead steel strike rioting.

One customer and nine employees were threatened by the bandit gang before the shooting. Arthur Neron, special policeman, who opened fire on the thugs, was credited with saving the life of Hugh M. Griffin, night superintendent of the Western Union.

Hoover Will End Fishing Trip On Saturday Morning

President Hoover Cuts Fishing Trip Two-Days Short—Goes 22 Miles Today

WILL BE BACK IN WASHINGTON MONDAY

By GEORGE E. DURNO,
International News Service Staff Correspondent
LONG KEY, Feb. 14.—President Hoover today made his longest excursion away from the Long Key fishing base, heading the house boat "Saunterer" toward Somboro light about 22 miles south of here.

On the two hour trip down, the executive had an opportunity to digest the French naval demand, made public from the London conference and relayed to Long Key last night. Although no comment was forthcoming from the presidential yacht, unofficial observations by his aides indicated that the proposals were regarded as exorbitant.

There was a feeling here that France, in asking for more than 700,000 tons of fighting craft, had thrown a monkey wrench into the machinery that set back the date of ultimate conclusion of the negotiations.

Tomorrow night Mr. Hoover will entrain for Washington—two days earlier than he had planned when he started south a week ago. It was denied that developments at London or any pressing business prompted the change in schedule, the reason given being that with no fishing Sunday and only part of a day available Monday, the president will reach the national capitol early Monday morning.

Posse Hunts Missing Girl

(International News Service)
CAMDEN, N. J., Feb. 14.—State police, aided by a posse of Clementon citizens, continued to scour the woods in the vicinity of Clementon today for little seven-year-old Marion Hulme who disappeared yesterday when she went into the woods to gather firewood.

The child is the daughter of Walter Hulme of Grove Terrace, east of Clementon. It is feared that she wandered away and became lost in the woods. Police searched all night for the little girl without success and with the coming of dawn today they began to fear she might have been kidnapped or met with foul play.

France's Stand Stumbling Block To Naval Accord

France's Desires In Naval Reduction Set Forth By Premier Tardieu

LENGTHY MEETING IS HELD TODAY

By HARRY R. FLORY,
LONDON, Eng., Feb. 14.—

France's program for disarmament, as set forth in minute detail by Premier Andre Tardieu, today definitely blocked progress of the Five-Power Naval Conference here.

While France's submarine and eight-inch gun cruise figures in particular are too high for Great Britain to accept without strenuous opposition, Premier Tardieu's alternative of a mutual security pact has aided in placing a formidable stumbling block in the path of the parity.

In the course of a lengthy meeting at St. James's Palace today, M. Tardieu again stressed France's willingness to reduce her tonnage figures provided the powers formulated such a treaty. The meeting was attended by Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald, Foreign Minister Arthur Henderson, First Lord of the Admiralty A. V. Alexander, Secretary of State

The two men were found exhausted and suffering from hunger and exposure. The craft was towed to St. Catherine's, Ontario.

Charges To Be Preferred In Orrville Case This Afternoon

BOY DISAPPEARED DECEMBER 27, 1928

Body Never Found—Accused Pair Blame Each Other For Killing

(International News Service)
WOOSTER, O., Feb. 14.—

Charges of child-stealing, in connection with the mysterious disappearance of Melvin Horst, 4, from Orrville on the night of December 27, 1928, will be placed against Charles Hanna and Earl Conald before tonight, it was announced here today by Prosecutor Marion Graven.

The prosecutor pointed out that it is impossible to place a charge of murder against anyone until the dead body of a murdered person can be produced.

Prosecutor Graven also stated that a charge of delinquency would be placed against Junior Hanna, Charles Hanna's 10-year-old son.

Each Accuses Other
WOOSTER, O., Feb. 14.—Each alleging that the other murdered 4-year-old Melvin Horst in a garage at Orrville on the night of December 27, 1928, Earl Conald, 42, railroader and alleged bootlegger, and Charles Hanna, father of Junior Hanna, were restrained from an actual fistfight in an office in the Wayne county court house here today.

Conald, who had refused to make any statements whatever in the investigating regarding the boy's murder, until this morning, declared Hanna killed the boy in a garage where Conald stored his automobile.

Hanna, on the other hand, stuck to his former statement that Conald beat Melvin to death. Each said he was a witness to the murder when the other committed it.

The raids were all made between the East End bridge and the western city limits.

According to advices, Engelhardt instructed his men to wreck every place where they suspected liquor was being sold. In one place a still was found along with a quantity of mash and liquor. Gambling houses were also wrecked in the drive.

Chief Engelhardt plans to continue his raids and drive out as many speakeasies and gambling joints in the city as it is possible.

The mail man staggers along today, his shoulders are sagging and bowed, and he moans his grief to the winter breeze, and his tones are fulsome and loud. For this is the way when the love sick youths are sending their valentines, to maidens fair who expect such things, these emblems of love's sweet signs. But the mail man curses his lonely lot as he weends his long way place to place, and he drops in the box a collection of mush, inscribed on a yard of lace. Oh roses are red so the poets say, and violet they whisper are blue, but blue as they are they are shades behind the mainman for he is blue too. And he drops the missives into each box, and wonders why he's alive, but the custom demands all this lovely slush, the weather is thirty five.

Dynamite Explodes, Windows Broken In Radius Of 20 Miles

One Thousand Pounds Of Dynamite Stored In Du Pont Magazine Lets Go

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 14.—Broken windows were reported in Chester, Falls of Schuylkill, Drexel Hill, Merion, and Kensington suburbs of the city today following the explosion of 1000 pounds of dynamite stored in a magazine of the E. I. Du Pont de Nemours Company at Gibbstown, N. J., 20 miles south of the city, last night.

The blast followed a fire of undetermined origin, that broke out in the magazine building. Volunteer firemen from Gibbstown had been summoned to the fire but were only half way there when the detonation took place.

So great was the concussion that it was felt within a 25-mile radius of the scene. Dozens of residents of Gibbstown nearby were hurled from their beds and windows in nearby residences were shattered.

Fortunately no one was injured, it is believed. The blast-proof construction of the building and the 20-foot earthen bankworks deepened the force of the blast and although 100 employees were at work nearby no casualties were reported.

Hundreds of persons in Philadelphia and nearby points in New Jersey besieged police stations and newspaper offices with requests for information for hours after the blast which took place about 11 p. m.

Five members of the Gibbstown fire volunteers, however, were slightly hurt when their automobile overturned as they were hurrying to the scene of the explosion.

Western area also acted as sort of major domo of the first aid events. Fred Alexander, who was taken to Pittsburgh with Mr. Clegg was also present.

One of the Pa New family who attended the Bell Telephone first aid contest at the Elks club last evening was impressed with the spirit of friendly rivalry which existed. There were around 250 present and all seemed to know each other.

Another shower of comic valentines greeted the editorial force this morning. The comic ones are cheaper this year and one has to buy them by the dozen. This probably accounts for the deluge. The ones being cut out this year are not quite so vituperative as in past years. Now you guess what we mean.

While the Neshannock Creek had started to subside this morning after its wild outbreak yesterday, the Shenango was still going up, having risen to the 9 foot mark this morning, a rise of over two feet in the last 24 hours.

"Stan" Whieldon, east side business man is thoroughly convinced that the old man for whom this red-letter day was named was a Saint. He boasted the arrival of a baby daughter today, and so he spent most of this Valentine day passing out cigars.

Another good indication of the early return of spring in this district is reported by M. I. Buchanan of Pulaski. Last evening about 5 p. m. a large flock of wild geese flying in a northern direction was seen by him passing over Pulaski. The geese were making considerable noise and appeared to be in a hurry to reach some evidently known destination.

Saw a white balloon floating down the Neshannock this morning.

It doesn't seem like rumble seat weather, but Pa New saw a young couple evidently enjoying the breeze while riding in a rumble seat. Neither had hats on. That is a pretty good sign of spring.

sessions, which was resumed by Prosecutor Marion Graven at 5 o'clock this morning.

Hanna, in his previous declaration that Conald had murdered the boy, denied any knowledge of where the boy's dead body had been taken. He said that after Conald murdered Melvin, he left the garage and went home, because "he was shaky". He admitted that he and Conald had gone to the garage to have "a few drinks of liquor".

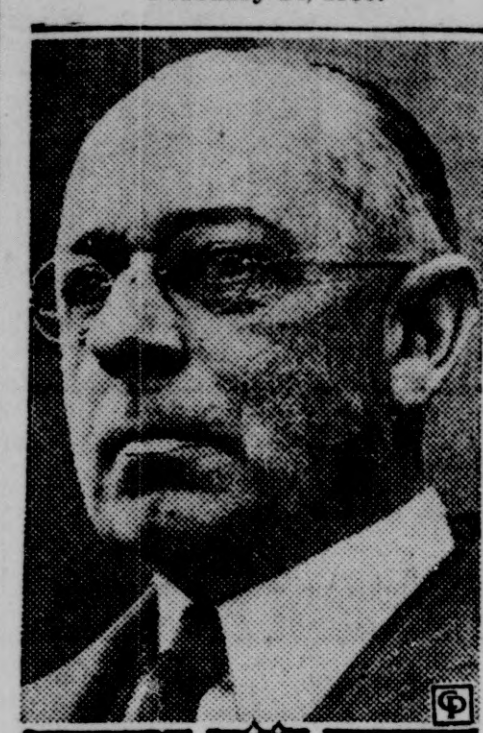

In Conald's contradicting statement, he declared that after Hanna had killed the lad, he picked his limp body up, placed it under his arm, and started toward his home. He said that he did not follow him and denied knowing anything about what was done with the body. Both men swore that they did not know where the body was, or what was done with it after they alleged the other had beaten the boy to death.

The two men faced each other and almost simultaneously each denied the murder and each accused the other.

Both men showed signs of wilting under the barrage of questions to which they had been subjected and the true confession and a solution to the mystery which has rocked Ohio for more than a year, seemed to be forthcoming later today.

STAR LORE

SATURN'S STORY TOLD BY A SPECTROGRAM

By Arthur DeV. Carpenter.

The spectroscopic photograph of the ball and rings of Saturn tells an interesting story. The east half of the planet and rings show vertical lines shifted toward the left or violet, as compared with a stationary spectrum, because they are rotating toward you, while the west half, because rotating away from you, are shifted toward the red or right. Then because the earth was approaching Saturn at the time, the lines of the east half are still more intensely shifted toward the violet. The lines of the inner edge of the ring are displaced more than those of the outer edge showing the inner part of the ring is rotating more rapidly than the outer.

HENRY FORD LOOKS FOR GOOD BUSINESS REMAINDER OF YEAR

Talks About "Crash".
Asked his reaction to the Wall street market crash, Mr. Ford replied: "It took a lot of good men temporarily out of business. I mean to say that the heads of industries became so interested in speculation it took their minds off creative work. Now their minds are back on business but it is a question whether their business minds are as good as they were. Too many of them are thinking of the millennium, or easy street, or what might have been if the market stayed up."

Mr. Ford said if the "business men" who got caught in the stock market drop go back to work with the idea in mind of being of service to the world—rather than concentrating on accumulating money quickly and easily—they will be on the right road. For, in his opinion, the only way to true success is by giving service.

"Do you think steps could be taken to prevent a recurrence of the market break?" he was asked.

"I don't know anything about the stock market," Mr. Ford confessed. "I do believe, however, that when the people generally speculate in stocks in a substantial way it costs everybody money. Too much speculation is a bad thing."

The only stock Mr. Ford thinks is worth a continental is "brains", and he added, "more brains are being retarded by the striving for money than for any other thing."

Says Bankers Responsible.
Mr. Ford smiled when asked if he thought the powerful banks had done the right thing in coming to the assistance of the market during the chaotic days of last fall. He said: "The financiers created the situation that developed and had to prolong it as long as possible to make all the money they could. Why shouldn't they have acted in the crisis? They were merely giving the market a little more margin for the price could be advanced but he believes such a policy would be "dead wrong."

"The gullible public made the market but the other fellows initiated it. When a man buys stock he should understand he is not making an investment but is taking a risk."

Mr. Ford made it evident that he is strongly in favor of mass production. He said there has been talk of curtailing farm products so the price could be advanced but he believes such a policy would be "dead wrong."

MacDonald Causes Ripple Of Laughter At Luncheon Today

(International News Service)

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald used a whiskey bottle and a soda water bottle at a luncheon today to illustrate certain of the disarmament problems faced by Great Britain and the United States.

Quite innocently he used the whiskey bottle to represent the British navy, while for the American fleet he pressed into service a siphon of non-alcoholic soda water.

The premier joined in the laughter which followed his peculiarly apt choice of objects for illustration, and explained that he had no intention of referring indirectly to prohibition and that he hadn't thought of the contents of the bottles when he began the demonstration.

The luncheon was given by the Anglo-American Correspondents' association of Paris.

McCORMICK-VOELKER NUPTIALS PRONOUNCED

A simple yet beautiful ceremony marked the wedding of Margaret H. McCormick, daughter of Mrs. J. R. McCormick, 249 East Neshannock street, New Wilmington, Pa., and Paul P. Voelker, president of Battle Creek college, at 11:30 a. m. today in the United Presbyterian church of New Wilmington. Rev. J. Ralph Neal performed the ring ceremony and Prof. Allan B. Davis presided at the organ. The couple was unattended and the bride was charmingly gowned in a frock of cream colored lace, her bridal veil being held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The church was attractive with decorations of evergreens, red and white gladioli and lighted candles on the altar.

Proceeding the ceremony, Prof. Davis sang "Always" and "Because," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Davis. The "Bridal March" from Lohengrin was played as the couple entered and the "Recessional" from Thunhauser by Mendelssohn concluded the ceremony.

Only relatives and immediate friends witnessed the ceremony and supplementing the church service a luncheon was served in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. McCormick, was assisted in serving by Mrs. R. FEED GAME BY PLANE

ALMOST every winter there are stories from one section of the country or another about the suffering of game birds and animals because of lack of food in prolonged cold weather or after excessive snow fall. It may be the wild creatures of the national parks in the west or the turkeys and deer of the east.

Authorities in Pennsylvania recently solved the problem of getting food to the state's starving wards in the mountainous section near Harrisburg. They sent out an airplane loaded with corn and apples and other delicacies dear to the wild game of the region. These things were dropped from the plane in various places. More food will be scattered in other sections soon.

Perhaps many of the animals saved now from starvation will be killed by hunters during the next season, but that is not the thought to dwell on. Kindness to animals is worth while at any time and for any purpose.

THE DEATH VALLEY LEGEND

For many years "Death Valley Scotty," picturesque survivor of the west's bonanza days, has been the source and center of a gilded legend. His name derives from that fearsome sink in the southern California desert which is the grave of many dreams of sudden riches—and of many a dreamer. The legend had its genesis in the story that he had a hidden gold mine somewhere along the valley's rim in a water course or on an escarpment of the Panamint or Amargoso ranges.

There were numerous skeptics but the believers outnumbered them, for many had seen and touched "Scotty's" gold. So the legend spread while jealous prospectors hired Indians to trail "Scotty" to his rainbow's end. He brought the legend eastward in 1905 by chartering a special train to see how fast he could travel from Los Angeles to Chicago—and setting a record of 44 hours and 54 minutes, which still stands. His scattering of $10 gold pieces as tips helped it along. So did his recent yarn of losing $60,000,000 in the stock market crash.

But this man, who has lived the life of an uncrowned king in the desert, has himself shattered the legend by saying "Thar ain't no gold mine and thar never was." Or rather, as his confession reveals, there is "a human gold mine." His money during all these years has been supplied by a wealthy Chicagoan who regained his health under the desert sun of "Scotty's" kingdom. A strange partnership, formed long ago when "Scotty" went to Chicago to seek backing for his desert projects, explains both the legend and the $2,000,000 mansion built by them above Death Valley. There are other reasons which may be found in a rich man's gratitude, his interest in a picturesque figure or, perhaps, his desire for vicarious adventure. At any rate, the legend has been shattered.

THE SAVAGE SUBMARINE

By insisting upon a huge force of submarines, much larger than what she demanded at the Washington conference, France challenges the public opinion and conscience of the world. These sinking sea-monsters have been everywhere condemned as instruments of savagery and horror, violating by their very nature the principles of civilization. They have been the cause of inhuman atrocities in war and have added a new terror to peace. Experience has sadly shown that even their ordinary operation is a source of constant peril. Their crews have little chance of escape if a collision sends them to the bottom.

Yet France has all along prevented the execution of the treaty to control the use of submarines in warfare to which her representatives agreed at Washington. The Italian delegates tartly suggested the other day that all argument over a new treaty would be ended if she ratified the agreement of 1922. Secretary Stimson feels that an immense step forward has been made in getting assent to a general undertaking to limit submarine activities. Yet what has been achieved is a rather sorry expedient. The total abandonment of the submarine is what a world that still remembers the last war vividly has a right to ask.

The sinking of the Lusitania remains one of the great horrors of history. No lapse of years will ever obliterate it from human memory. It was the most conspicuous of all the calamities wrought by the deadliest instrument of sea warfare. It defied all the humane precedents of generations. France, like the other Allies, was appalled by this threat of utter defeat. Like them, she longed for the help of the United States, which came because of this purposeless sacrifice of the lives of helpless civilians. The French delegates at London apparently fail to realize the inconsistency of their demands in the light of history.

What the world has a right to expect of the London conference is something far more effective than the submarine control treaty of eight years ago, ratified by every nation except France. It would be an ironic farce, perhaps the ruin of the conference, if a new peak were set for submarine tonnage. The United States and Great Britain have stood together for abolition. Is their high aim to go unrealized? It would be something if the total submarine tonnage were materially reduced. Such reduction would at least be a precedent for complete abandonment, leaving coast defense to other craft.

Nothing is ever settled, it has been said, until it is settled right. The naval conference will not have fulfilled its purpose while the submarine remains.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Today

No Bolshevism.

A Battleship, Hardly.

Remembered, Middy.

The World Loves Titles.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE

(Copyright, 1930, King Features Syn., Inc.)

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 14—

In one column you read about a "mob" of 1,200 idle men, fighting police in Cleveland, 20 in the mob injured, officers hurt.

In another column you find comfort, perhaps, in news from Washington that our National banks have resources of over 29 billions of dollars, 7,408 institutions have on deposit more than 22 billions.

A country so rich ought not to have so many men willing to work and idle. You are told that the mob of rioting unemployed in Cleveland had been influenced by "Bolshevik propaganda."

It is very easy to say "Bolshevism," but when a man is out of work, worried and perhaps hungry, he needs no help from Lenin to make him dangerously dissatisfied.

Men adrift on a raft in midocean that had never heard of Lenin or Bolshevism have killed and eaten each other.

The British possess the greatest fighting ship in the world, the Rodney, built and paid for.

Innocent Senator Borah and Representative Britten suggested that the British should scrap that ship, in the interest of lovely world peace. At that British statesmen smile politely and say they really can't quite do it.

This guileless nation, after the Washington conference, destroyed and threw on the junk pile splendid new battleships including some not completed.

And the British destroyed some pretty blue prints. They probably would oblige us by preparing and destroying some more blue prints. But when it comes to destroying a finished battleship costing millions of pounds, that is something else.

In honor of Lincoln's birthday banks and the Stock Exchange closed. Some mild editorials were printed here and there the Gettysburg speech was read.

But the dead are VERY dead. One hundred twenty million Americans appreciate our three greatest men—Washington, Franklin and Lincoln. But they appreciate them quietly, and for a majority of us they are not very real.

The world still loves titles. In a Los Angeles law suit about money collected for a newly invented religious "cult" you meet a mild looking gentleman called "The Four Wilds of the Whirlwinds." He wrote down, with his typewriter, 50,000 pages dictated by angels to the priestesses of the "Great Eleven Cult."

"Concords of the stars led the priestesses to various locations, and there the angels did their dictating."

Men and women gave tens of thousands of dollars in return for nonsense of this kind, which proves that the human race is largely foolish.

Republican statesmen, their names not mentioned, are said to be agitated because a Democrat has been elected to Congress from Calvin Coolidge's district in Massachusetts.

This is considered a reflection on Republican party government and the "statesmen" to employ the popular pseudonym, wonder what in the world could make any voter dissatisfied.

Perhaps some Americans in Massachusetts think it is about time for the government to concentrate on something more constructive than whiskey.

Thomas A. Edison believes that prohibition is possible and sure to come. Fully automatic machinery, Edison says, will provide the laborer with a home and many luxuries, but he must not drink.

In spite of Uncle Sam's ardent and foolish appeal, through his London delegates, for the abolition of submarines, the submarine, fortunately for this country, and thanks to France and Japan, will remain.

The British, dependent for their food supply on surface craft to which submarines are fatal, naturally want the submarines abolished.

This nation would like to oblige the British and would cooperate with them undoubtedly in any effort to thwart starvation tactics.

But we need submarines in the present state of international barbarism, to make our harbors, coasts, island possessions, and Panama Canal safe.

And the safety of this country, NOT OF GREAT BRITAIN, should be the first consideration of those on the American government's payroll.

The Transcontinental Air Line established by Gen. Atterbury's Pennsylvania railroad and Mr. Storey's Santa Fe, contemplate the use of big airplanes to carry 35 passengers each. W. B. Mayo, chief engineer of the Ford Motor Company, is here planning for the bigger planes that Ford would make. They probably would be built at Long Beach, California, on the Pacific, close to Los Angeles.

EXERCISE

This column has been a steady opponent of the fad of violent exercise for middle-aged men. Much harm is done in the name of exercise. A little of it is good for body and soul. Too much of it may put you in the list of the prevalent dead—at 50. Just to let somebody else have a say, the writer directs attention today to the following words of wisdom from the Philadelphia Ledger.

"Among the earliest shattered illusions of 1930 must be recorded the belief that setting-up exercises make one healthy, wealthy and wise and strong enough to carry a lot on a narrow margin. The shattering was perpetrated by more or less unimpeachable authorities—members of the Society of Directors of Physical Education in Colleges at their thirty-third annual meeting. In their opinion, the feeling of sweet superiority enjoyed by the man who gets out of bed 15 minutes before he has to and goes through various rather comic bodily motions has hardly a leg to stand on."

"So, at the beginning of this otherwise happy new year, we are called upon to pause before the battered form of the once noble and respected science of calisthenics and drop a tear. The professors did not utterly condemn this kind of exercise. They simply listed it as a poor 29th in a series of 30 days to become a Gene Tunney or a perfect 36. The individual who makes a point of avoiding some sort of physical exercise every day will yet come into his own."

OUR OWN BUSINESS
General Pershing is a military man. Being a good one, he is a man of few words. He made a New Year's resolution. He says it was "to mind his own business." Perfect. What could be better? Adopted by all men, it might mean that a number of organizations would fall apart.

LOOKING AHEAD
It is commonly said that the happiest persons are those who live most in the present, who waste no time in vain regrets and remorse for the past and who do not look ahead to worry about the future. But this attitude is not calculated to bring the largest and finest happiness. In the opinion of this writer, those who live most thoughtfully and get the most out of it are those who are not living too much in the present. They are not tied to the day and its difficulties. They are casting their minds and souls ahead. Their imagination is in play. They see themselves in a new and better day. They are moving toward goals beyond their present achievements. However good the day, they live in the expectancy of a better one. They never complain, but they never cease to hope.

Sentiment Not Laws Acclaims The Star Spangled Banner

Action Which Has Been Sought Creating Official Song For Nation Declared By Many To Be Useless

The five million petitioners who ask for legislation authorizing the Star Spangled Banner as the national anthem have caused considerable comment but not much serious consideration. Most people think that the song as enshrined in the people's hearts needs no law.

"What could a law do for 'The Star-Spangled Banner'?" asks the MILWAUKEE JOURNAL, with the argument: "Call it our national anthem. Why, if it were not that already, a law would not make us love it more. We have no law providing for a national Thanksgiving Day, but try to quit it! A law might forbid the music's use in the Army or the Navy, but that would be a cruel and unnecessary restriction. The beautiful ceremony called 'Retreat' and then, indeed, the country would be moved. Some 5,000,000 citizens were easily persuaded to sign a petition to make it the national anthem. If 5,000,000 citizens want it, 'The Star-Spangled Banner' is the national anthem." The Journal also argues: "You cannot take the stately flag out of the hearts of Americans. Ask those who have been long absent from their country, and they will tell you that when once more they caught sight of Old Glory waving in the breeze, it brought to their hearts a thrill which nothing else can give."

"During the World War," recalls the PHILADELPHIA EVENING BULLETIN, "no act of Congress was needed to bring the people to their feet at the first preliminary notes of 'The Star-Spangled Banner,' and there could be no complaint of lukewarmness toward either song or symbol. If the revision of the music makes it more singable, so much the better. The improved melody will inevitably work its way into popular favor. Meanwhile the bill should be consigned to the limbo of unnecessary law, to be resurrected only if and when the American people shall fall in due reverence for 'The Star-Spangled Banner' and 'Old Glory.' Patriotic inspiration cannot be pumped into the people by passing laws."

With or without law, the NEW BEDFORD STANDARD believes that "the present agitation will have no practical results," and that paper contends that "simply an act of Congress cannot suddenly create tradition, and it certainly could not create strong feeling among the people for a song of its choosing—only time can do that."

Taking a more favorable position, the CLEVELAND NEWS declares: "There are cogent reasons why Congress should delay no longer in giving 'The Star-Spangled Banner' full formal recognition. It is distinctly American and cannot be confused with 'God Save the King' or any other country's national air. It is already known the world over. It is preferred by Americans, as provided by its ascendancy over other patriotic songs. In both words and music it is superior to the national songs of numerous other nations. Millions of citizens have good reason to hold it in regard so high that no act of Congress could increase or diminish their affectionate reverence."

"So, at the beginning of this otherwise happy new year, we are called upon to pause before the battered form of the once noble and respected science of calisthenics and drop a tear. The professors did not utterly condemn this kind of exercise. They simply listed it as a poor 29th in a series of 30 days to become a Gene Tunney or a perfect 36. The individual who makes a point of avoiding some sort of physical exercise every day will yet come into his own."

Ten Ivory Club

Members of the Ten Ivory club enjoyed a Valentine party Thursday at the home of Mrs. Carl Luning of East Lutton street. The chief pastimes were music, dancing and cards which were much enjoyed.

At a late hour, a delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Lewis Valiensi who was also a special guest of the evening. Red and white decorations predominated and the table was centered with a large box containing numerous comic Valentines for each member. Mrs. George Ross was the prize winner for this feature.

Mrs. Mary Maciariello of South Mill street, will be hostess to the club on February 27.

Blind Man Directs Farm By Wires

World War Veteran Has Unique System For Guiding Way About

the best judges of cattle in Australia. Shortly after the war he established a stud farm, and, with the help of his wife, has made big successes in the show ring. In order to get about unaided he has wired his farm to all "key points." The wires radiate from his home to his stables, cattle pens, feed bins and garage. Short lengths of rope are fixed to an iron ring and strung on these wires, and a piece of tin at the end of the destination tinkles when touched. In this way the blind veteran knows exactly where he is.

Sand Blasts Recall Dewey's Naval Exploits

Old Statue When Cleaned Turns Out To Be Monument To Admiral

TELLS STORY OF SPANISH CONQUEST

By WILLIAM PARKER
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—A lowly sandblast crew had reminded hundreds of preoccupied San Franciscans that Admiral Dewey sank the Spanish fleet in Manila Bay May 1, 1898.

Residents of San Francisco had become used to the tall monument in Union Square that only a few passerby personally interested in the shaft or Dewey's deed of valor even paused to study it. Time, wind, rain, fog and dust had almost obscured lettering on four sides of the shaft; and tourists had to puzzle out the wording.

But today the lettering stands out clear and impressive, making a heroic chapter in American history. It tells too the story of the loss of the last of Spain's once innumerable crownlands.

One panel of the shaft reads simply: "American squadron, Manila Bay, Olympia, flagship; Baltimore, Raleigh, Boston, Concord, Petrel and McCulloch."

The Olympia, for all of its glorious deed, now lies rusting in the Philadelphia Navy Yard. Numerous movements to make it a permanent memorial have failed.

Another panel bears a message laconic in its brevity but grimly arbitrary in its language. It is the message of Secretary of the U. S. Navy

John D. Long, to Admiral George Dewey, April 24, 1898. It reads: "NEXT CHAPTER"

"War has commenced between the United States and Spain. Proceed at once to the Philippine Islands and capture or destroy the Spanish fleet."

The next "chapter" is on another panel. It reads:

"On the night of April 30, 1898, Commodore Dewey entered Manila Bay undaunted by the danger of submerged explosives, reached Manila at dawn on May first, 1898, attacked and destroyed the Spanish fleet of ten warships, reduced the forts and held the city in subjection until the arrival of troops from America."

Other panels local history of the shaft. It was "erected by the citizens of San Francisco to commemorate the victory of the American Navy under Commodore George Dewey at Manila Bay, May first, 1898."

Beneath it is carved: "On May twenty-third, 1901, the ground for this monument was broken by President McKinley."

Finally this: "On May fourteenth, 1903, this monument was dedicated by President Roosevelt."

Surmounting the shaft is a heroic feminine statue of Victory. The elements have corroded its copper or bronze surface into a drab figure.

Ready For Bandit Twenty Three Years, Fails To Get Him

Minneapolis Storekeeper Unable To Reach Guns Hidden
In Place

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 12.—For 23 years John Schmidt, grocer at 1309 Como avenue, has had a half dozen guns planted in strategic spots in his store awaiting the arrival of a bandit.

Last night the bandit came. Mr. Schmidt was alone in the store when the man entered and asked for a box of matches. As a grocer stepped around the end of the counter, the bandit followed, poked a gun against Mr. Schmidt's ribs and helped himself to $18 from the cash register.

Then ordering the grocer to face the wall, he started for the door.

"When he told me to turn around, I thought of my guns," Mr. Schmidt said, "and grabbed one from a shelf."

As the gunman fled through the door, Mr. Schmidt shot. Now he has a neat little hole in the plate glass window beside the door.

One man didn't discourage the grocer. He chased the holdup man for two blocks south on Thirteenth avenue, dispatches seven more shots in the general direction of his intended victim. Apparently none of them took effect, for the bandit outdistanced his pursuer.

Homely Legs Are Called Real Reason For Long Skirt Mode

Exhibitors Claim Average Woman's Legs Can't Stand Publicity

International News Service
CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Imperfect legs are the cause of the present long-skirt style that has divided women into two camps.

The real reason for long skirts is homely legs and nothing more, according to exhibitors at the fashion show of the Chicago Women's apparel manufacturers which is just drawing to a close.

The average woman's legs are not good enough to stand the publicity of short skirts. In fact this is the case with seven out of every ten women, these experts say. Therefore they are being hidden away under satirical bush baskets.

Rather than show their legs this year the ladies will display their figures, trusting in a harmonious ensemble rather than an undependable, striking display below the hem.

Skirts will only be really long—down to the ankles—in the evening. The afternoon models will be eight to ten inches from the ground, the exhibitors point out.

Tiny Infant Is Named In Law Suit

Is Named In Technical Action In Denver Real Estate Deal

International News Service
DENVER, Col., Feb. 14.—Sally Morehouse, three weeks old, is probably the youngest person ever named in a Denver lawsuit.

She is one of thirty-six defendants named in a technical action to quiet title to Denver real estate.

The infant is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Morehouse, Pennsylvania, Pa. The mother is the heiress to part of the huge original estate of the late Julius F. Brown, Colorado pioneer.

The little girl arrived on the scene after papers had been prepared by attorneys to clear title to the property. One of the heirs was allowed return from a trust fund, which in turn was left to her heirs. A clerical error clouded the title.

Just when suit was to be instituted to remedy the situation, along came Sally. The papers had to be drawn up again to include her.

ABOUT THE "PIG WOMAN"

Mrs. Jane Gibbs, bizarre figure of the Hall-Mills story, passed on the other day I was one of the army of scribes who "covered" the yarn from its inception. I came to know Mrs. Gibbs fairly well and, past her angularities of temperament, was able to discern much that warranted respect.

It always struck me as such an unchivalrous thing to have dubbed this lady the "Pig Woman." The term carries a malicious implication ill-deserved. But the title once hurled clung burr-like to the very end, appearing even in her obituary notices.

Cut in some star-dusted limbo of the infinite, I don't suppose it makes much difference to Jane Gibbs now what her nickname was.

Nevertheless, I'm doing here what I always wanted to do—resenting an injustice to a woman of remarkable character and courage.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—There's a negro tenor in town who sings: "Ireland must be heaven for my mother came from there."

DAILY PUZZLE

John Mason Brown, after qualifying at Harvard, is holding down a job on one of New York's highbrow journals as Drammer Dammer. I've never met Mister J. Mason Brown but from his writing I visualize him as a chap who'd be seasick with a very Broad A.

In a recent analysis of Katharine Cornell's work in "Dishonored Lady," he referred to her "sympatica morbidissima."

Leaving a Gentleman of The Old School wondering just where the lady feels the pain most.

according to figures recently completed by the State Department of Welfare.

The total was divided as follows: $1,910,825 for outdoor relief; current almshouse maintenance expense, $3,791,983; and major improvements $2,748,725. Pennsylvania has an average yearly almshouse population of approximately 20,000 persons of which about 8,000 form a floating population.

The reports are assembled from records of the poor boards by the State Department of Welfare under whose jurisdiction the almshouse come.

NOBILITY DEMANDS
RETURN OF TITLES

VIENNA, Feb. 14.—That Austrian nobility should again possess titles, is one of the demands of extreme right parties, which are discontinued with the latest revision of the Austrian constitution, and are forcing the parliament to occupy itself with a series of new amendments.

One of the most interesting constitutional amendments proposed by the Right is the re-introduction of all the titles, which were abolished when the monarchy was overthrown and the republic established.

Now that it has been demonstrated that such an innovation is feasible the Panjandrums of Patter and Plot have become very brave. There have been five plays produced with entire male casts and a sixth, "The Last Mile," is under way.

Shaving Mug Joins Stein And Pretzel As Memory Of Past

DENVER, Feb. 14.—Along with the old beer stein and its sidekick pretzel, the colorful barber shop shaving mug has been relegated to a permanent shelf in Colorado, where they may be observed by future generations as among other oddities that were once upon a time accepted for their full economic value.

Only the trustworthy comb maintains its esteem in the eyes of the Colorado board of health, which has put into effect the most drastic barber shop regulations in the United States. At one stroke the health board has changed the old place into a highly sanitary institution you wouldn't recognize.

Many barbers and beauty operators may be thrown out of work by a regulation which provides that no person afflicted with tuberculosis, among other diseases, may work in the tonsorial trades.

Infractions of the new regulations will result in fines as high as $100, and imprisonment in county jails for not less than ten and not more than 90 days, according to the health board's pronouncement. The board also reserves the right to revoke licenses.

The hair of a man or woman will not be brushed in a barber shop, barber college, or beauty parlor, if regulations are followed. Combs alone will be used, but the barber may use a perforated brush in giving a patron a shampoo. Everything in the shop except the bootblack's brush must be sterilized between customers.

No longer may a barber sweep his powder brush across the neck; he must use a towel or piece of paper; each towel must be laundered before it tastes of powder again, and the paper must be thrown away.

For shaving, a mechanical lather-making device is recommended. Every shop must have hot and cold running water. When a patron's hair falls on the floor it must immediately be swept away. Every cuspidor must be cleaned daily. Spitting on the floor is prohibited. Medicated sticks can be used to stop the flow of blood.

Keith has called a conference of representatives of state teachers and accredited colleges for a course of visual and other sensory techniques for teachers in training and teachers in service. The sessions will be held in the education building Thursday and Friday, February 13 and 14, with an evening session on Thursday.

The central theme of the conference has to do with the state superintendent's plan for improving the quality of instruction in the schools of the commonwealth. A large number of colleges have indicated their intention to send representatives.

Man Nails Finger To Corn Crib Wall

(International News Service) TIPTON, Ind., Feb. 14.—Elmer Letsinger, a farmer living northeast of here, nailed his hand to a corn crib he was repairing in one of the strangest accidents on record.

Letsinger was fastening some galvanized iron about the bottom of a corn crib on his farm. He was driving a nail through the iron. Just as he started a tremendous whack at the nail with his hammer, the middle finger of his left hand slipped under the nail right through the finger and into the wood, nailing the finger tightly to the corn crib.

Letsinger was unable to release himself and shouted for help. It was necessary to draw the nail to release Letsinger. He was then rushed to this city where a physician found the bone in the finger had been splintered.

Daughter Is Healthy Now

"My thirteen-year-old daughter Maxine was troubled with backache and pain when she came into womanhood. I knew Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would help her because I used to take it myself at her age. Now she does not have to stay home from school and her color is good, she eats well and does not complain of being tired. We are recommending the Vegetable Compound to other school girls who need it. You may publish this letter."—Mrs. Floyd Butcher, R. #2, Gridley, Kansas.

Bo Broadway

By Central Press
NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Mr. Lopez, the eminent musical director, has replaced that other Old Master, Brother Goldman, on the olive oil radio hour.

A lot of Harmony Hounds, jealous of Mister Lopez, deny that he is a great musician. These people should be ashamed of themselves. He is a musician from his finger-tips to his toes. Also, he is a believer in numerology and says he never engages a musician for one of his orchestras without first analyzing him by this process.

"Since doing this," he adds, "there has been a decided improvement in the quality of my orchestras."

UNIMPORTANT IF TRUE
Artie Schwartz, one of the Younger Deities of Tin Pan Alley, puts twenty nickels into his overcoat pocket every morning, uses them exclusively for telephone calls, and seldom has one or two left at the end of the day.

WELL, IT WAS, AT THAT

About twenty years ago there was an electric sign, seven stories high, on the roof of the Hotel Normandie. The Chariot Race that was pictured on the lower half of his gigantic display drew crowds for four years. Millions saw the exhibition, and for many of them this electric advertising device was the prime attraction of a trip to Tammany Town. The apparent motion of the horses was obtained by 2,500 flashes per minute. Twenty thousand bulbs of various colors were used and these required 70,000 connections and 2,750 switches.

Frank Presbrey, the advertising man, visiting London at that time, was invited by a friend to step out one night from his hotel and view an electric sign in Piccadilly which was the newest sensation in English advertising methods. Presbrey tells about it in his book, "The History and Development of Advertising."

"It was a simple device," he says, "about ten feet long, which flashed the letters and had no other feature of novelty. Temptation could not be resisted to tell the London friend about the Chariot Race in New York. The Englishman, greatly impressed by the description, remarked: "I say, but isn't it a bit conspicuous?"

TOO CONFIDENT
In the first typewriter advertisement, which appeared in The New York Tribune, Dec. 8, 1875, the manufacturer confidently asserted that: "The Type Writer is certain to become as indispensable in families as the sewing machine."

MORLEY'S HARD LUCK
Old Chris Morley, navigator on the last seacoast of Bohemia, Hoboken-on-the-Hudson, has filed an application for receivership for his Hoboken Theatrical company, through which he revived the gaslight melodrama.

"The disappointment of the venture," he avers, "has served as a drastic but healthy education in business management, which, I have learned, is an art as delicate as any of the more aesthetic employments."

Feeding lit'ry nightmares to epileptic Bohemians came, in the beginning, as a change in the way of variety. For a time he prospered in his revivals of the shriek-and-sneer type of drama, aided by a friendly atmosphere of beer, sawdust, popcorn, peanuts and the little bit of yesterday that is Hoboken.

But he permitted boisterous burlesque to get the bit in its teeth, and before he realized it, its tail was over the dashboard.

He should have infused his venture with a touch of restraint. An instinctive artist would have done that. And now, having learned the lesson that business, too, is an art, let him not mull the fact that stability in common sense is even better than an education in economics.

TRUE, BUT—

Eugene Field once interviewed a politician.

"What did he say?" queried the editor.

"Nothing," replied Field.

"I know," said the boss, "but how many columns did he say it in?"

2000 Ask License For Sale Of Milk

HARRISBURG, Feb. 14.—More than 2000 applications have been received from wholesale and retail dealers in milk for licenses to do business in Pennsylvania as required by the new milk law, according to Ralph E. Irwin, chief of the State Health Department's bureau of milk control. Approximately 4000 dealers, including 600 pasteurizing plants and 3300 distributors of raw milk, are engaged in this business in Pennsylvania. Distributors appear to be entirely satisfied with the new law and are lending their support to it, Irwin said.

Permits in response to these applications are being issued as soon as the inspections upon which such permits are based can be completed.

New Medicine Restored Health And Strength.

MR. HARRY F. BOSSERT

"I suffered for more than two years with stomach trouble, con-

Mr. Harry F. Bossert, 120 North Lambert street, Philadelphia. "The plainest foods were too much for my stomach and I bloated terribly.
I had not been free from constipation for years and was a constant user of cathartics. Rheumatism attacked me in the limbs and back and there were days on end when it was misery to carry my mailbag.
A fellow-worker told me about Konjola, and I shall always be grateful to him. I took four bottles and found my health troubles at an end. My digestion is perfect, and I never am troubled with constipation. Best of all, the pain and swelling from rheumatism have entirely disappeared, and I am happier and in better health than I have been in years."

TO ASH MANY ROADS
There will be 50 miles of ash and slag roads built in Mercer county during the coming summer is the opinion of Commissioner Harry Hunter who is head of this department.
Road supervisors have been visiting the court house this last month making a demand for assistance.

Three townships have already petitioned the court for additional mileage to take care of their road programs. The major portion of the 32 townships in the county are in debt due to their road building.

INSTALL AIR PURIFIERS Air purifiers have been installed in various court house offices. The mechanics of the machines provide for the purification of the air every few moments.

In many of the offices ventilation is such that the opening of windows is necessary at intervals. To replace this necessity the purifiers have been bought.

SMOKES CIGARETTES AS LEG IS AMPUTATED

(International News Service)
MANCHESTER, Eng., Feb. 14.—
Ernest Ainscow a young telegraph of all Manchester by his pluck. Involved in a railroad accident, he calmly smoked a cigaret while a doctor amputated one of his legs, which was mangled in the wheel of his

He requested another cigaret when on arrival at the hospital, doctors de-

Prayer In Congress

The house met at 12 o'clock noon.
The chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Direct us, our Heavenly Father, to employ our knowledge and the influence of our position, to which our country has exalted us, in obedient endeavor to do good. Work in us both to will and to do Thy good pleasure. Endow us with a genuine, sincere, honest, and hearty purpose to serve Thee and the Republic. We ask to know Thy will toward us; then may we love to follow it. Then above all, the sounds of time will be the note of triumph, for Thou wilt bring us off more than conquerors. In future years the sweetest not of our immortal song shall be: "He hath done all things well." For Thy name's sake, hear our prayer. Amen.

TINY BOOK CONTAINS LINCOLN'S ADDRESSES

A tiny book, is on display at the State House, containing Abraham Lincoln's four famous addresses, which, if mailed, would have to go contains 164 gilt-edged pages and is bound in red leather.

Parisians Laud Lindbergh Again

(International News Service)
PARIS, Feb. 14.—Paris papers are once more singing their praises of modest Lindbergh.

The popular aviator's refusal to allow his statue set up in St. Louis has provoked favorable comment from Parisian dailies who still have a very warm place in their hearts for the lone flier.

"Comedie," Paris' dramatic daily, calls his newest resentment against public demonstration a "charming act of American democracy, a touching modesty of four great friendships which is in direct contrast with the megalomania of certain of his compatriots."

BERLIN, Feb. 14.—An "anti-ugly-

German cosmetic surgeons with a view to have persons, with deformed faces operated and beautified with the aid of government funds.
Pointing out that deformed and ugly persons are often treated as outcasts and accordingly develop a sort of inferiority complex, causing them much suffering, the league pleads for sick treatment through social insurance.

ROAMING With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly, Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Anyone scanning the mail coming into The News office today wouldn't have to be told that it was St. Valentine's day. Now the history of St.
Valentine isn't so clear off hand, neither can I tell you whether this is his birthday or the day of his demise, but it does seem to be the day for the losing of inhibitions.

Some of the valentines which came to this desk could hardly be classed as works of art. There is little of the influence of Raphael or Velasquez or even Billy De Beck about them, but in their way, no doubt, they express the sentiments of the sender. And what could be sweeter?

Let those who will squander their money on lace and tinsel creations, costing up to 70 and 80 cents. Let those who care to, send candy or flowers, or potted geraniums. The comic valentine bound gets more fun for his dollars, and after all fun is not governed by expense.

I wouldn't care to say that the persons who sent the chronos I received, were drunk, but I have my doubts about the artist who drew them, if artist he was. No sober man could draw such monstrosities and not be drunk.

It seemed as though some one had set out upon a campaign of insult, with all of us getting a couple of daisies. But to quote Jimmy Jackman of the Back Room, if you don't expect to get insulted, stay out of the newspaper game.

Milwaukee was once famous for its beer, and Boston for its beans. New Wilmington seems headed for fame because of its buckwheat cakes and sausage. Next Monday evening the Rotarians of the Center of Culture are giving their annual cakes and sausage spree, and every lad within fifty miles who wears a Rotary button will be there.

Plans Regular Zeppelin Trips From Coast To Orient

(International News Service) LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 14. — Regular Zeppelin service from Los Angeles or San Francisco to Honolulu and the Orient probably will be in operation late in 1931 or early in 1932, according to an announcement here by Edward P. Farley of Chicago, a New York chairman of the executive committee of the Pacific Zeppelin Corporation.

Farley was on a business trip in Los Angeles in the interests of the Zeppelin company and his shipping business.

He is a member of the executive committee of the American-Hawaiian steamship company, was head of the emergency fleet corporation in 1923-24 and at one time head of the United States shipping board.

"Officials of the Pacific Zeppelin corporation are making a study of equipment and are planning for a Pacific coast terminal," Farley said. "The experimental stage in Zeppelins has been passed and only the details need to be worked out before we can put our transpacific lines into service."

"Our Pacific coast terminal probably will be in San Francisco or Los Angeles."

"We expect to put two airships into service at the start and they undoubtedly will be built at the terminal. They will be four or five times larger than the Graf Zeppelin. They will be operated by a crew of about 40 men, will be able to carry about 120 passengers and will make the trip from coast to Honolulu in about 36 hours," he said.

File Statement Of Llewellyn Charges

Mayor Presents Bill Of Particulars To Attorney For Officer

Thomas Llewellyn, city policeman, suspended from service on charges preferred to city officials will be given the opportunity Monday of defending himself when council convenes at the city building.

When council met today the mayor informed colleagues that a bill of particulars had been prepared which was read to council. Councilman Genkinger's motion was passed which authorized the bill to be given Llewellyn's attorney.

Llewellyn was charged in the bill with having violated rules of the police department and in one particular it was alleged that on December 26 at Liberty and Cherry street, he had ordered boys to go home.

The bill further charged that he shoved one of the boys, who fell and fractured an arm. The patrolman agreed, it was alleged to pay for the physician's fee but had not done so.

In another particular he is alleged on July 25 to have subjected a motorist to abuse at Croton avenue and East Washington street and that in July, 1928, he had frequented a house against which there was complaint.

Relative to the charge which brought about his suspension, it is alleged in the bill that he followed two women, January 27, between 7:30 p. m. and 8:30 p. m. and accosted one of them.

Asked by the women as to what he wanted, the bill of particulars said that he "asked her for a date." She reported the alleged affair to her husband and this was in turn reported to a police sergeant and the mayor.

Councilman Genkinger offered a motion directing the mayor to issue subpoenas for the presence of witnesses Monday.

Llewellyn denies the charges.

Airplane Accident Case Is On Trial

Testimony Being Taken In Suit Of Clarence R. Martin Against Clare B. Smith

The case of Clarence R. Martin against Clare B. Smith and Annabel Smith for $25,000 as a result of an accident to Martin when he went up in an airplane near the New Castle fair grounds in 1927, is on trial before Judge Hildebrand in county court.

This is a case in which K. E. Smith, father of Clare B. Smith, was killed, and Martin, who was a passenger in the same plane, had his skull fractured and was otherwise seriously injured.

Martin contends that Clare B. Smith engaged L. R. Hendricks and William Castle to bring a plane here from Youngstown in which to take up passengers during the fair. When the accident happened Castle was at the control of the plane. It is alleged that the plane was in bad shape and that it was being operated on inferior gasoline; also that Castle

Fountain Pen Ink Contains 450 Stains

(International News Service) DALLAS, Texas, Feb. 14.—Mr. Average Man thinks plain fountain pen ink is just ink. But it isn't. It's composed of 450 varieties of stains, declared C. C. Hubbard of Pittsburgh, at the third annual convention of the National Cleaners and Dyers Association here.

"There are 2,000 different kinds of stains, and paints can be differentiated into hundreds of types," Hubbard explained. "Perspiration stains on clothing are a serious problem in the South. Pure silk is damaged or destroyed in 21 days if such stains are left on it."

College Sees Persian Wear Native Dress

International Air Prevails On Colorado Campus With Novel Costume

GETS CONCESSION TO WEAR CLOTHES

(International News Service) FORT COLLINS, Colo., Feb. 14.—The campus of Colorado Agricultural college has taken on an international atmosphere with the appearance here of Mamed Farchi, a Persian student, in native costume.

In addition to his regular course, Farchi is taking advanced training in R. O. T. C. work, and his appearance in his incongruous native toga created no little consternation until it was learned his intent was arbitrary.

It was only by this provision, agreed upon after negotiations among the United States War department, the Persian ambassador at Washington and Dr. Charles A. Lory, president of the college, that he could study military work in the United States.

Farchi was refused permission to take advanced cadet work on his first application because of war department regulations.

The young Persian is son of Mirza Aga Farchi, democratic leader of the Persian government, who was one of three men whose leadership was influential in the revolution which overthrew the absolute monarchy of Persia in 1907.

The elder Farchi, before the revolution met success, had a price placed on his head by the former king. Taken dead or alive, Farchi was worth a huge sum to his captors, and for two years he sought protection in Europe. He returned in time to aid in overthrowing the government and was one of the framers of the new constitution.

Young Farchi will return to Persia to operate one of his father's farms after finishing his education here.

Commander Byrd Asks Government To Thank British And Norwegians

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, now in the Antarctic with an ice pack between him and the rest of the world, in a wireless message to the State Department Thursday, asked messages of thanks and appreciation be transmitted to the British and Norwegian foreign offices for the interest shown and offers of assistance in getting his expedition out of the Antarctic.

"While we are not yet keenly apprehensive about our predicament, which is potentially quite serious, I am naturally attempting to leave undone nothing that will insure the safety of my men," Byrd told the British.

"Therefore, should the occasion arise whereby His Majesty's Government can assist I will with very great appreciation make known my requirements."

To the Norwegian Government Byrd expressed his thanks for "its generous action" in enlisting their interest of the whaling association of Sandefjord in the event of emergency.

Peter's Adventures

WHO'S RAISING THE DUST?

"Come on out, Lady Bug!" shrieked Dragon-Fly. "I am an insect of my word and I tell you I will not touch a scale on your coat!"

"Fine!" called back Lady Bug, promptly. "I shall take you up on that promise and crawl out from under this leaf. To tell the truth, it has been most uncomfortable here. I am not used to skulking. But it doesn't pay to risk one's head you know, and somehow I have never felt comfortable when you've been anywhere around. I overheard what you told the boys. From now on I will try to start my ground and not turn tail and run away from you!"

"But don't stand too long," muttered Dragon-Fly under his breath. "What's that?" asked Lady Bug who, luckily, did not catch it.

"Oh nothing," answered Dragon-Fly. "I was just thinking what a warm day it is," the sly fellow winked at Peter.

"After all, I guess you're not as bad as you have been painted, Sir Dragon-Fly!" remarked Lady Bug happily. "Come to think of it you have never hurt me or one of my family that I ever heard of. Oh my goodness, gracious!" Lady Bug rose into the air and fluttered about Peter's head. How her red and black coat shone in the sunlight!

"What's up?" cried Peter. "Do my eyes deceive me or is that a dust cloud in the distance? And if it is a dust cloud, who's raising the dust?" Lady Bug was excited. "It's a dust cloud, all right!" declared Dragon-Fly, although Peter could see nothing. "And I, with my two thousand eyes will act as look-out."

Dragon-Fly rose high into the air and lazily circled. At last he hung, head downward, toward Lady Bug and Peter.

"There's a big crowd coming!" shrieked he. "Butterflies, and beetles, moths and pool people!"

Next: "Dragon-Fly Fails as 'Look-out'."

John Gilbert Wants Revenge On Jim Tully For Recent Knock-Out In Cabaret

(International News Service) HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Feb. 14.—That a return match may be staged between John Gilbert, film actor, and Jim Tully, author, if they ever came face to face again, was indicated on Thursday as the two "warriors" hurled defiance at each other here.

Gilbert admitted that his first plan of battle against Tully was somewhat faulty.

"I made a mistake in rushing him," said Gilbert. "I put me at a disadvantage. No, I don't know what will happen if we meet again. It is true that I was knocked down, but not out. And he did not lick me."

The robust Tully countered by saying that Gilbert should attend to his picture career and let rough ex-tramps and pugilists alone.

Without going so far as to agree with an "Old-Timer in the Orient" that the Japanese are "notoriously tricky business men," it is easy to recognize that the Chinese have a world reputation for honesty, and maybe to find an explanation for it. For countless generations trade has been pre-eminently respectable in China. Needless to say, probity is its backbone. Does it not follow that a people to whom financial integrity is so essential would elevate it to the standard of something like a religion? In feudal Japan, on the other hand, for centuries, commerce was despised until recent years. Looked down on anyway, what encouragement was there for its trading class to develop a high sense of honor?

What are England's ideas concerning world peace? England recognizes war as ruinous. Her present premier, Ramsay MacDonald, is especially a pacifist. Nevertheless, war is so old a story that few statesmen believe it really is ended. This skepticism makes genuine peace progress very difficult—in England the same as elsewhere.

Please describe the world court. The League of Nations set up the world court to settle international disputes. It has 11 judges, from 11 countries, and meets at The Hague, Antwerp, and meets at The Hague. America long hesitated to join from unwillingness to accept decisions by a majority of foreigners. Finally our state department agreed, subject to certain safeguards suggested by Elihu Root. However, the senate has not yet approved this agreement. Until it does so, it is not binding.

Where did Calvin Coolidge take the presidential oath? Did President Hoover, when he was sworn in, repeat the oath, or only answer "I do"? Mr. Coolidge took the presidential oath at Plymouth (Vt.). President Hoover answered to the oath as recited by the chief justice, "I do, so help me God."

Please outline Cuba's history, describe its government and explain the Spanish-American war. Discovered by Columbus in 1492, Cuba was intermittently in revolt against Spain until freed by the Spanish-American war, commonly laid to the Maine's destruction at Havana, Feb. 15, 1898, but really due to American annoyance at trouble so near by. Spain also lost the Philippines and Porto Rico, but with a liberal American cash allowance. A republic today, under President Gerardo Machado, Cuba enjoys near-independence modified by a mild American protectorate.

Missing Banker Is Being Sought

(International News Service)
MONON, Ind., Feb. 14.—A reward of $2,500 is being offered for information leading to the apprehension of Carl Middlestadt, 50, missing cashier of the Monon State bank.

Middlestadt, for years a pillar in Monon social and church circles, disappeared on the night of October 31, 1929, leaving behind a shortage of about $100,000. His troubles were blamed on losses caused by the collapse of the stock market. The reward for Middlestadt's arrest has been posted by the Depositors' association of the defunct bank.

New Hunt For Grave Of English Explorer

$1,000 For Data On Last Resting Place Of John Franklin

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—The mystery of Sir John Franklin is nearing solution. The Canadian government has authorized the payment of $1,000 for data which, it is believed, may lead to the discovery of the last resting place of the great English explorer and the recovery of the priceless records of his expedition.

The only written record of Franklin's Arctic expedition was a brief report found by Capt. McClintock in the 50s, telling of the explorer's death and the privations of the survivors who were trying to make the mouth of Back's Fish River. For years explorers and navigators have sought for the main records.

The most important of these records, it is now thought, were buried in Franklin's grave.

Charles F. Hall, an American explorer, searched for Franklin from 1864 to 1869 among the Eskimos. The expedition broke up in disorder, however, when Hall shot one of his men for insubordination.

Week End Frocks In Chic Wardrobe

By ALICE LANGEIER
International News Service Staff Correspondent
PARIS, Feb. 14.—Week-end frocks are putting chic into all women's wardrobes this winter. They are absolutely necessary for the house party or little hotel-holiday.

If it is for the Riviera, week-end frocks come in fascinating tussos in soft pastel shades. Pink, peach, grey and green or palest apricot are the favorites.

If it is for a week-end at one of the cooler resorts, there are indescribably soft and clinging tweeds and jersey weaves so varied they even come in the plaids of all the Scotch clans. There is a new gray tweed with bright knots of wool worked to the surface there and there. A beige, white and brown English tweed with a soft angora jersey-blouse has its coat trimmed with nutria fur. A novelty wool jersey comes in brick, gray, beige and white.

One house is showing a youthfully simple week-end frock in gray woolen material with little black dots. All the originality of the model lies in the slightly flaring cut and amusing distribution of the tiny bows made of the same material.

Another uses blue crepe de Chine printed in greenish-blue for a frock certain to be much in demand over the week-end in any spot.

this unusually convenient colored glass cake plate with the purchase of two packages of Pillsbury's Cake Flour

Women are changing their ideas of perfect cake!

Something astonishing has happened—in a single year a million women have adopted a new cake flour. They found that it brought about surprising improvement in their cakes—it completely changed their ideas of "perfect cake!"

Baking tests show that Pillsbury's Cake Flour possesses three distinct superiorities: (1) It makes a cake that rises higher—a lighter, fluffier, more delicate cake. (2) It makes a cake with a softer, finer texture. (3) It makes a cake that stays moist and fresh longer.

These improvements are the result of a new blend of certain rare types of wheat, unusually soft, milled to a silky fineness. Test it for yourself—it will give you a new pleasure. Try Pillsbury's Cake Flour with the most difficult, delicate recipe you know—it will prove its superiority before you have finished the first package.

Pillsbury's Cake Flour

If you've ever tried cutting and serving a cake from an ordinary plate, you'll appreciate this new idea. It stands up from the table, on three little legs—you can slip your fingers under the edge, and carry your cake without touching the frosting. Also, it is perfectly flat on top—your cake cannot sag in the middle, as it sometimes does when placed on an ordinary curved plate. It is made of delicately colored glass, in a graceful, attractive design. The top carries a beautifully traced figure. It is extremely ornamental—and just as practical as it is good-looking. Your grocer will give you one free with the purchase of two packages of Pillsbury's Cake Flour.

EMANUEL C. SMITH, 516 N. MARSHALL ST., PHILA.

"I Found the Way to Health Through Flaxolyn and I Am Profoundly Grateful"

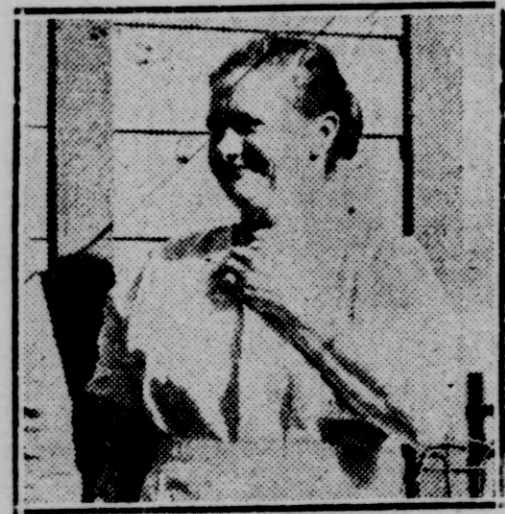

Emanuel C. Smith, Well Known Pennsylvanian, Declares That Words Can Hardly Express the Great Warmth He Has In His Heart Toward Dr. Luntz's Vitaminized Herbal Flaxolyn. "In All My 52 Years I Never Enjoyed Better Health Than I Do Today," He States.

What follows are not the words of an advertising writer, but the sincere personal experience of a man who knew what it was to be deprived of health, and who tells in his own language just what Flaxolyn did for him. "Deepest gratitude for health restored through the medium of this wonderful, simple, natural compound forbids silence on my part," says Mr. Smith. "I only regret that words of mine entirely fail to describe what a big, general improvement in health I've gained at 52 years of age, and all through this most efficient natural cleanser and tonic Flaxolyn. It is almost unbelievable—till one investigates. Folks, where health is at stake, don't hesitate—give Flaxolyn a fair trial."

Discouraged By Failing Health, Phila. Woman Finds Flaxolyn Results "Simply Amazing"

Increasing Ailments Worried and Depressed Mrs. Swanson. Constipation and Shattered Nerves Grew Worse. After Trying Dozens of Ordinary Remedies, She Used Dr. Luntz's Vitaminized Flaxolyn, and If You Want to Read a Truly Remarkable Story, Do Not Overlook What Follows:

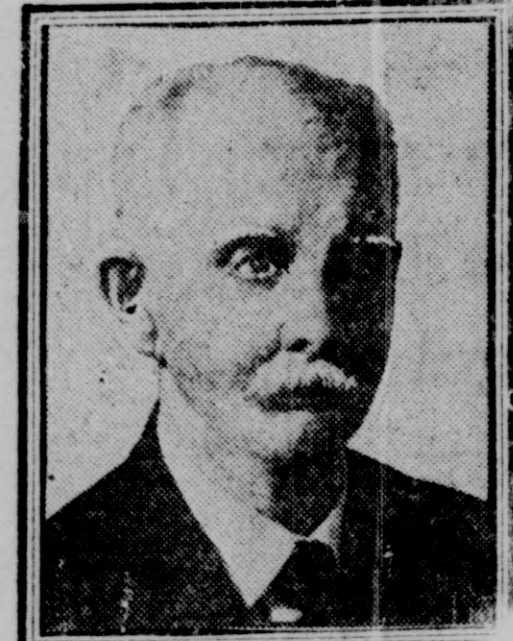

MRS. O. SWANSON WHO REPORTS MOST REMARKABLE BENEFITS FROM FLAXOLYN

"For years I have sought to remedy ever-increasing ailments," says Mrs. O. Swanson, a fine Swedish lady, who lives at 2333 Midway, Philadelphia. "I suffered chiefly from constipation and shattered nerves, and found but little and only temporary relief in everything I was advised to take. As a result, I was growing more discouraged and prejudiced at testing anything new, but finally I saw and heard so much good about Flaxolyn, I did try it, because my condition was steadily getting worse. This was six weeks ago, and now my past sickly condition is fast disappearing. In fact I felt the good influence of Flaxolyn from the very start. While such a big improvement seems impossible and even miraculous in such a short time, nevertheless it is true. My heart-felt appreciation for the good Flaxolyn has done me makes me willing to lend my name and picture for the purpose of inducing others to try this natural remedy."

Physician, A.E.F.-Major, Openly Endorses Flaxolyn

DR. T. A. WALLACE, OF FIFTH AVE., N. Y., FORMERLY MAJOR IN THE A. E. F. IN FRANCE.

Vitaminized Flaxolyn Tones the Stomach; Gives Liver Mild Stimulus and Drives Out Toxic Poisons That Form in the Intestines, According to Dr. Wallace. "For Solid Sleep and Soothed Nerves, I Urgently Advise the Use of Flaxolyn," He Says.

"Dear Doctor," writes Dr. T. A. Wallace, former Physician in the American Expeditionary Forces to Dr. Luntz, discoverer of Flaxolyn. "You will be interested to know of the splendid success I have had with Flaxolyn. Through its use, sound sleep and soothed nerves are obtained in a short time, by the counteraction of the toxic poisons. At the same time, Flaxolyn is a good aid to digestion and a good liver and stomach stimulant. I prescribe it particularly for those above the age of 30, although it is excellent for young and old. You have succeeded nobly in producing an efficient herbal, vitaminized health-aid."

Senate Opposed To Any Increase In World Navies

Senate Will Oppose Naval Limitation Treaty Providing For Increases

"BIG NAVY" GROUP IS QUITE ACTIVE

By PIERCE MILLER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—A vague but significant hint of growing opposition in the Senate to any naval limitation treaty, providing for an increase in either the American or British Navies above existing construction programs, was heard today in the reaction here to recent developments at the London conference.

"One group of 'last ditch reductionists' was reported ready to propose amendments to any treaty brought back from London by the American delegation, which will provide parity in battleships or cruisers by new construction in either navy. This group will fight for parity by the 'sinking process' and it will have strong leadership in both the Republican and Democratic sides. One particular goal of this group will be the sinking of the British super-dreadnaught Rodney, which British naval authorities regard so mightily.

May Offer Opposition
The "Big Navy" group however may oppose such a program, while backing the administration in the reported plan to build a new American dreadnaught, equal in armament, guns and naval value. The Rodney, and its sister ship, the Nelson, carry nine 16-inch guns, are of post-war construction and heavier armament than any ships in the American navy. The "Big Navy" men would like to see at least one of her super battleships flying the "stars and stripes."

FARM CALENDAR

Timely Reminders From The Pennsylvania State College School of Agriculture

Test Garden Seeds—Vegetable seeds of doubtful viability or those left over from last spring should be tested before planting. In testing, count 20 to 100 seeds and place them between moist cloths or blotters in a shallow dish covered by another dish. After a few days in a warm temperature, if kept moist, the viable seeds will sprout and the percentage of germination can be determined.

Give Stock Water—Human beings like to drink ice water but livestock prefer warm water. Dairy cattle and poultry will maintain normal production if provided with water of the correct temperature.

Save Flower Bulbs—Dahlia bulbs should be examined to see if they are keeping well. If they are shriveling, cover them with sand. If they show signs of starting growth, keep them in a cooler place.

What Milk Powder Is—Dry skim-milk, or milk powder, is nothing more than fresh, sweet skim-milk from which the water has been driven off by heat, leaving a fine, white powder which will keep a long time and can be shipped great distances.

Prevent Pig Anemia—Pigs of three to six weeks of age that are raised indoors are most subject to anemia. Supplementing the sow's milk with an iron salt or such carrying impurities of copper is said by investigators to be the only way of preventing the disease in sucking pigs.

Prevent Silage From Freezing—Covering silage with blankets or burlap and preventing circulation of air in the silo are ways to keep silage from freezing in severely cold weather.

Keep It Touch—Each Monday at noon timely farm garden suggestions are broadcast from the Pennsylvania State college radio station, WPSC. Each of these programs begins at 12 o'clock. The station operates on a frequency of 1230 kilocycles. Each Sunday the college chapel service is broadcast at 11 o'clock a. m.

OH, THESE WOMEN!

By LEOLA ALLARD

A VALENTINE:

My dear Ex-wife, I stoop to say, That I am deeply blue.
I find that underneath their skins,
And ever in their sharpened fins,
And in their unrepented sins,
The rest are JUST like you.

I'd love to have you back again.
I know now, you're a brick.
And if you'll listen to my plea,
I'll humble the poor dud that's me,
I'm sure that we can both agree
I need a good swift kick.

I'd like to have YOU back (again)
I'd give you the WHOLE roll.
I find the blonde asked quite a price,
And I don't even think she's nice.
And underneath she's mad as ice—
The Devil take her soul!

Miss Catherine Hicks of 10 West Moody avenue, who was injured in the automobile accident near Sunny Crest on the New Wilmington road, Sunday evening was able to leave the Jameson Memorial hospital and return to her home today. Miss Hicks is much improved.

Oregon man yelled a warning to passerby before jumping from the ninth floor of a hotel. Though unusual, it seems a practice worthy of encouragement.—The Cleveland News.

National Farm Outlook

By ARTHUR H. JENKINS
Editor, The Farm Journal.
Written for Central Press.

It is the numerous and powerful dairy interests, with the support of a good many beet sugar and cane sugar producers, who lead the current campaign for setting the Philippines free.

Their motives are easy to understand, and as far as I can see, are perfectly proper and honorable ones. The facts of the case are that the Philippines export to this country without duties large quantities of coconut oil and raw sugar, together with hemp and some other commodities. These compete with our own butter, and other fats and oils, and with our sugars, and narrows by just so much the market for our own farmers.

The Filipinos are anxious, whether wisely or unwisely, to be given their independence. They are quite willing, according to their leaders, to trade their free markets in this country for freedom from American rule. And this country has promised them independence, in a hesitating and conditional sort of way.

What farm organizations have taken action on the subject have supported the project of freeing the islands. And I am satisfied that the rank and file of farmers, who do not always share the views of their leaders, would do so in this case.

There is no imperialistic feeling on the farms. Most farm people, I think, regard the Philippines as a troublesome burden, which it was a mistake to assume in the first place. They believe that their possession increases the danger of war in the Pacific, and they are certain that the free importation of their oil and sugar damages American farming. They take no stock in the idea expressed in the silo, "the white man's burden."

For all these reasons, agriculture wants the islands turned loose, taking the word of Filipino leaders that their people are willing to be dumped outside our tariff breastworks in return for independence.

One other alternative was proposed in congress the other day, which was to put the Philippines on much the same basis as Cuba, turning the civil government over to the Filipinos, but with an agreement that this country may intervene under certain circumstances.

Such a solution would satisfy many people, no doubt. As the Philippines would be outside our tariff wall, farmers would be satisfied; but whether the islanders themselves would accept such an arrangement in place of complete freedom is not so certain.

Mellons Deny All Reports Of Ticket Choice

Published Reports That Mellons Have Selected Candidates Are Denied

POLITICAL POT BOILS MERRILY

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 14.—The office of W. L. Mellon, former Republican state chairman, issued an emphatic denial today of reports sent out from here to the effect that the Mellons have indicated their preference of candidates in the forthcoming primary.

Published reports credited the Mellons with placing their stamp of approval on a ticket headed by Senator Joseph R. Grundy, Bucks county, for re-election, and Samuel S. Lewis, York county, for governor.

Other possible candidates named in the report as bearing Mellon endorsement were State Senator Frank J. Harris for lieutenant-governor; Frederick Godcharles, present state librarian, for secretary of internal affairs; Judge George W. Maxey for supreme court justice and Judges William Linna and J. Frank Gaff for superior court judges.

Strict Silence
Mellon headquarters here maintained strict silence as to their ultimate choice of candidates. While not denying that they eventually may come out in favor of some or all of the candidates mentioned, they let it be known that they were not ready to go on record with any endorsements yet.

Another prevalent rumor in local political circles today was to the effect that Judge Charles D. Copeland, Westmoreland county, may run for governor on a ticket with William S. Vare as candidate for the Senate. This report, like many others going the rounds as the political pot again nears the boiling point, was nothing more than a rumor.

W. L. Mellon leaves tonight for Florida, where he will sojourn for three weeks, during which time it is unlikely that he will make a statement concerning the political slates. Joseph N. Mackrell, Allegheny county register of wills, also an important political figure west of the Alleghenies, leaves soon for Bermuda without saying how he will be aligned in the primaries.

Waste Paper Is Burned In Fire

Firemen Fight Stubborn Blaze In Sampson Street Building This Morning

Firemen from the Sixth ward and Central departments fought a stubborn blaze, when fire broke out in a building in the rear of 837 Sampson street used by Dan Rice for the storage of waste paper. The loss to the building was approximately $200, while the loss on the contents will run around $500.

Mr. Rice had a good many tons of waste paper stored in the building and was preparing to ship it away this week. The blaze was still smoldering at 10:15 this morning, firemen having been called to the scene of the fire at 1:30 this morning.

Other Calls

Three other alarms were answered since early yesterday afternoon.

Central and No. 5 were called to 127 East Long avenue at 9 o'clock this morning by an alarm from box 83, where fire which had originated in a pile of boxes placed against the side of a house occupied by Mrs. Mary Blunt, colored, burned up through the side of the house and across between the ceiling and second floor, causing damage of $300 to the house and $75 to the contents.

The origin of the fire has not been determined, but it is believed to have been caused by sparks from a chimney or by children playing with matches.

At 6:45 this morning, No. 4 department was called to 1508 Fulton avenue to the home of Edwin Moore, where a chimney was burning out. There was no damage.

An alarm from box 711 called Truck B, from Central department and the Seventh ward department to the Sheenango Works of the A. S. and T. P. Co., where sparks from a welding machine had set fire to a box filled with tin. The plant firemen extinguished the blaze with no loss.

Dispute Over Money In Sheriff's Hands

Antonio DeSanctis Wants Issue Framed To Determine Who Is To Get It

In the case of Charles R. Grim for use of the Universal Sales company against Ferdinand Scuduto, Filomena and Ladovico Mucci and Frank Pearl, terre tenant, exceptions have been filed at the court house to the sheriff's schedule of distribution.

Antonio DeSanctis, a judgment creditor and purchaser of property sold by the sheriff in Neshannock township, asks that an issue be framed to determine who is entitled to a balance of $544 in the hands of the sheriff after the Universal Sales company claim is paid.

Plaintiff paid $3,100 for the Grim property, subject to a mortgage, given to the Joint Stock Land bank. Attorney Samuel L. Clark held a mortgage for $400, followed by three judgments of DeSanctis aggregating $1,616.63. Payment of the mortgage held by Clark is called in question and a rule was issued. The court is asked to determine how the money in the hands of the sheriff should be distributed as between Clark and DeSanctis.

PERRY HIGHWAY ROUTE SOON TO BE DETERMINED

Meadville Will Be Eliminated By New Survey For Road

With a corps of engineers and surveyors stationed at Conneaut Lake expected to complete their work within another week, satisfactory progress in laying out the route the new trunk-line Perry Highway will follow in traversing Crawford county was reported Wednesday from the office of T. C. Frame, general superintendent of the Highway Department for the northwestern district of Pennsylvania at Franklin.

That the road definitely will not pass through Meadville, but will skirt the city some four miles to the west, was stated Wednesday, eliminating the final possibility that the route would be made along the old Mercer Pike over Kennedy Hill into Meadville.

The exact location of the new Perry Highway has not, of course, been established as yet, the work of the surveyors being contingent upon approval by the district and State Department of Highways. It is apparently agreed, however, as the general course the route will follow.

Leaving the old roadway at a point north of Sheakleyville, the farthest north that has been paved to this time, the new route will bear slightly to the west and will pass north through Geneva. This section of the new road has been definitely established, but from Geneva two possibilities are being investigated, one carrying the route to intersect with the Meadville-Conneaut Lake road at the top of Oak Hill and the other to intersect somewhere near the bottom of the hill.

WILL HEAR SECRETARY
There is every indication that there will be a good many Welsh people going to New Wilmington on Monday evening, February 17, to hear the speech of James J. Davis, secretary of labor for the United States. Two years ago, he was with the Welsh people of New Castle at the Cathedral, where he made a wonderful address.

Hoover Heights Meetings To Close

Successful Week Of Willing Helpers Services Will Be Brought To Conclusion

Tonight will be the last of the meetings this week of the Willing Helpers Happy Week services being held at the Hoover Heights Tabernacle. The service last evening was one of great inspiration and encouragement. Mrs. Edwina Hinkson sang "Shadows." The Misses Ruth Shoaff, Marian Anderson, June Ewe and Virginia Kroesen sang "Nothing But Leaves."

Rev. E. C. Anderson, pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle, brought a very helpful message on "The Temple of God." His lessons were drawn largely from Temple of Solomon. He also referred to the fact of man being a Temple for God's dwelling, to the tabernacle in the wilderness, temporary and moving structure, likened to the earthly church. Solomon temple was a figure of the national and religious life of worship. The church today should be the center of our lives, it should be first of all.

Efficiency Impaired? Do You Get Up Frequently at Night?

YOU CANNOT HOPE TO "make good" under these circumstances. Nobody can. You must have rest, a clear brain, and every organ in perfect working order to do justice to yourself.

After a hard cold or an attack of the grip or flu, your kidneys are apt to be affected. When the body filters become deranged, poisons accumulate in the blood and are scattered throughout the system, and many disagreeable symptoms follow. If you notice any kidney irregularity, and if you feel the need of free medical counsel, write Dr. Pierce's Clinic, Buffalo, N. Y., also send sample of urine for free analysis. Or send to the drug store and get DR. PIERCE'S ANURIC TABLETS, a mild stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.

Anuria was originated at the Invalids Hotel by Dr. Pierce, president, after observation and treatment of thousands of kidney cases.

took up the second chapter of the study book, "The Divided Portion," explaining fully what is meant by the tithing system and why a person should give in this way to the work of the church.

At the close of the lesson period the young folks engaged in games of various kinds, under the leadership of Mrs. Hazel Brenneman. After the games a dainty repast was served by Mrs. McPate, assisted by Alice Warner.

Indians Refuse Flights Over Meteor Crater

By LYLE ABBOTT
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—The Indians of Northern Arizona are taking to airplane riding, but there is one spot they will not cross by air.

Pilots of transcontinental airlines terminating here relate many adventures among the Hopi and Navajo who are fond of gathering about the airports to see the man-eagles alight and fly away.

The fearsome spot to the Indians is Meteor Crater, near Winslow, Ariz. This is a pit of 800 feet deep and three-quarters of a mile across in the flat plateau. Science says that a few years before the birth of Christ a meteor struck that spot traveling at 50 miles a second. The explosion of the impact was so great that the unexploded fragments, if any were left, were buried at least 1200 feet in the solid rock.

The Indians have no legends about the meteor. But they have a name which scientists declare explains it. The Indian name is literally translated "Star-Fell-Down."

Two transcontinental air paths cross the great crater.

Vera Dawn Walker has won her transport pilot's license. She is the eleventh woman to attain that rating.

Miss Walker, a Los Angeles girl is 4 feet 11 inches tall and weighs 90 pounds in a bathing suit—if the bathing suit is wet.

Shortly after the first of the year she planned to start an air tour of all the state capitals.

Western America's airports increased in number from 142 to 412 during 1929 a survey showed.

Harry Culver of Culver City, president of the National Association of Realty Boards, returned recently from an air tour that covered 100,000 miles. Culver is so enthusiastic about aviation that he owns his own cabin monoplane much as he used to maintain a fleet of motor cars.

Edward Martin a check he will doubtless elect to retain as a souvenir, paying into the county treasurer from his own pocket the sum it represents. "Pay to W. O. Dixon, Treasurer," the check reads, "the as formidable a piece of paper as though it called for the payment of half a million dollars. This penny check is a remittance drawn on behalf of the Department of Forests and Waters, in lieu of State taxes on forest lands." The fact that the Commonwealth is not taxable for county purposes was discovered some years ago to work a hardship on counties in which huge purchases of forest land were made, because acquisition by the State withdrew these lands from assessment. The law was amended to permit the Department of Forests and Waters to pay an annual charge of five cents per acre, in lieu of the tax normally paid by individual owners. Of this amount two cents goes to the road fund and two cents to the school fund of the township in which forest land lies, while the remaining cent is paid to the county treasurer. In Clarion county the State possesses a solitary acre of forest land, hence the penny-check to W. O. Dixon.

THIRD DEGREE LEADS TAILOR TO LAMPOON POLICE

Fifty-Six Hours of Torture Turns Man Into An Artist

(International News Service)
PARIS, February 14.—Nearly Fifty-six hours of alleged third degree by the police turned Michael Almazoff, Bulgarian tailor, into a caricaturist.

Proof is a couple of lampoons on Parisian detectives, done by Almazoff, who says he never tried drawing before in his life.

Almazoff is suspected of killing Rigaudin, an expert accountant, and shipping the body in a basket to Lille. He has been in jail for more than two months.

One comic drawing shows a man with a toothache addressing a friend: "Don't you know a reasonable dentist? I can't stand this pain."

"Sure," replies the friend. "Drop in on the police. They'll pull your teeth for nothing. They even reduced my weight for me."

Carves Monogram
On Husbands Face

(International News Service)
DALLAS, Texas, Feb. 14.—"Aha!" thought a Dallas woman when she picked a blonde hairpin from her husband's coat. She is a brunette and doesn't use pins but, being broad-minded, remained quiet and became observant.

A week later she found an off-color lipstick in hubby's bed. That is, off-color as compared with the shade she used. So she scratched her monogram on hubby's face and to finish things up right, chewed on him a while.

"I defended myself," she told District Judge Royall R. Watkins when she asked for a divorce. Her husband grinned broadly as the decree was granted.

Japanese Offer Two Proposals In Naval Reduction

American Delegates Study Two Alternative Proposals Submitted By Japanese

JAPANESE DEMANDS NOT TOO STRINGENT

(International News Service)
LONDON, Feb. 14.—American delegates at the London naval arms conference today were studying two alternative proposals privately submitted to the Americans by the Japanese in a conference between Senator David A. Reed and Ambassador Tsuneko Matsudaira.

The first proposal provided that Japan would be willing to accept a tonnage strength in 8-inch gun cruisers of 108,400 tons if the United States would reduce her demands for cruisers of that type from eighteen to fifteen ships.

The second Japanese proposal provided that if the United States insisted upon eighteen cruisers, Japan would have to build two additional ships of this type to bring her total 8-inch gun cruiser tonnage to 128,000 tons.

The first proposal would give Japan a seventy per cent ratio of American strength in all auxiliary tonnage, the second would give Japan a ratio of almost seventy-four per cent.

Both proposals provided that Japan have 78,000 tons in submarines, a ratio of trifle less than 96 per cent of the American total of 82,000 tons.

Military Training In Schools Of India

University Leaders Approve Compulsory Training In Schools

(International News Service)
NEW DELHI, Feb. 14.—A campaign to establish compulsory courses of both military and physical training in the principal universities of India met the approval of the All-India university leaders in an important session held in this city.

Thirty-nine universities were represented. A resolution declaring for compulsory military training was adopted and an amendment declaring that compulsion should not be exerted upon individual students was lost by a vote of 18 to 21. It is understood that the military training plan was proposed with the consent and encouragement of the British government in India. The Deputy Secretary of the Army Department announced to the conference that the government had in mind an intensive course of four years' training and would make funds available for it.

A resolution permitting undergraduates certified as physically unfit for military training was adopted, but only those students will be eliminated from the program to be now so widely installed.

Auto Operators Obey 'Slow' Sign In Getting Cards

Over Million Must Get Cards In Little More Than Two Weeks

HARRISBURG, Feb. 14.—On February 10, 1929, 660,000 operators of motor vehicles had applied for their drivers' licenses, but on the same day this year only 514,000 had made application, the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles said today.

The operators' license year begins Mar. 1; therefore less than three weeks remain in which 1,536,000 drivers must secure new cards. "Undoubtedly," said Eynon, "many thousands of drivers operate at all times without cards of any kind, but on January 6 we mailed blank applications to 2,050,000 holders of the privilege. Doubtless the inclement weather of the last few weeks has cooled the driving ardor of a great many and if this sort of weather continues many thousands of operators will not care whether they have cards or not."

"Bright and early on the morning of Saturday, March 1 however, motor patrolmen throughout the state begin to ask operators of motor vehicles to produce their cards. The fine for operating without a card is $10.

The Bureau of Motor Vehicles continues to receive thousands of applications to which is attached $1, instead of the legal fee of $2 fixed by the last legislature.

Assault And Battery Is Charged In Case

According to the story Jones was crossing the Raymond yard when Mrs. Raymond told him to get off or the dog would bite him. Jones replied that the ground upon which he was walking was private property. This led to a dispute in which Mrs. Raymond claims that Jones struck her. Jones was committed to jail to await a hearing.

Egypt Called Land That Never Changes

(International News Service)
CAIRO, Feb. 14.—The land which never changes.

Such is Egypt in the eyes of Somerset Maugham, the English dramatist, who is spending the winter months here.

Inscrutability and immutability, he terms the leading characteristics of this ancient land of the Pharaohs. And he believes in the superstition that one who has drunk of the waters of the Nile is bound to return.

Mr. Maugham was here 20 years ago. He finds everything exactly as he left it, he says. Which has nothing to do with the radios in the homes, the talkies in the cinema houses, and the advertising signboards now decorating the neighboring of the long suffering Sphinx.

Trustee Is Awarded Verdict Of $22,800 In Surety Co. Case

Claimed Bond Given Was To Indemnify County And Not Other Creditors Of Burns And Burt

In the case of Attorney Charles R. Davis, trustee in bankruptcy, for Burns and Burt against the Southern Surety company, which was tried before Judge Chambers, the jury awarded a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $22,800.

This was a case in which the Southern Surety company was bondman for Burns and Burt on contracts involving improvement of the Ellwood City and Harlansburg roads. After the improvements had been completed the surety company seized the equipment of Burns and Burt, alleging that it had been assigned to them at the time the contract was awarded.

In the meantime Burns and Burt had gone into bankruptcy. Trustee Davis made demand for the return of their property on the grounds that Burns and Burt had completed their contracts and had been paid for the work. The bond, it was claimed, was to indemnify the county in case of any loss. As the county had not lost anything it was claimed that the surety company had no right to the equipment and supplies as against other creditors of the firm.

The claims of other creditors approximated $52,000. Under the verdict the $22,800 can be applied in the liquidation of indebtedness to other creditors of the bankrupt. It is claimed that the original amount of this indebtedness has been cut down, so that the loss to creditors will not be as much as at first figured.

Auto Dealers Meeting On Show

Members of the New Castle Auto Dealers Association held their weekly luncheon in the Elks Club at noon today, following which there will be a general discussion of plans for the coming auto show at the Cathedral.

The committees in charge have the plans for the show well lined up and only a few minor details have to be smoothed out.

Weekly United Holiness meeting will be held this evening at the Salvation Army Hall, 26 East street, with Rev. Mark Smith, who has been conducting services at the army headquarters all this week, in charge of the service. He will speak on the topic "Holiness."

Junior High Senators Installed Amid Pomp

Students of the George Washington Junior high school Thursday witnessed the induction into office of 21 new school senators, a ceremony that came near equalling in dignity and impressiveness the august inauguration of a United States president.

The oath of office was administered to the newly chosen leaders by Principal Browne K. Thacker.

The senators who had just been elected a few minutes before they marched into the auditorium at the opening of the program in two lines, one headed by Miss Jean Rummel, acting director of activities and the other by J. C. Ward, sponsor of the senate. On arriving at the platform the senators-elect are presented by the sponsor to the principal of the school.

The ceremony of installation occurred amidst even more pomp, and Evelyn Brandt represented the spirit of George Washington and the ideals for which the school stands.

Coming to the front of the platform, the Spirit beseeches the students to hold fast to the principles of the school, and during her speech lights the candle she is holding, which represents loyalty, truth, sportsmanship, patience and an ever-willingness to defend her honor and ideals.

Then the Spirit lights the candle which the senate president is holding, which symbolizes that the Spirit is passing onto the president the ideals for which he must work.

Principal Thacker then administered the oath and immediately following spoke on the need for school children's learning, and how they govern themselves by a senate to teach them for later life. The senate then marched out of the auditorium in a body.

Representatives of the different classes in the new senate are as follows:

Room 8B1, Hazel Kerr; 8B2, Robert Miner; 8B3, Maxine DeLillo; 7A1, James Hartman; 7A2, Jack Kelly; 7A3, Helen Martin; 7B1, Mary Herbold; 7B2, Dorothy Miles; 7B3, Dorothy Fletcher.

Officers of the senate for the semester are as follows: President, John Stump; vice president, Morgan Jones; secretary, Ralph Teets and treasurer, Alfred Sadler.

A regular devotional period opened the program with Miss Jean Rummel in charge. Music throughout the assembly was furnished by the school orchestra.

Ask For Traffic Light At Croton Avenue Corner

Council convened at city hall today, heard East Side Merchants association members tell the need of a traffic light at East Washington street and Croton avenue then acted favorably on Councilman Genkens motion placing the installation of lights in charge of Councilmen Reeves and Treser.

It is said that two lights will be installed, one on the north side and the other on the south side of East Washington street, intersecting Croton avenue.

It was believed that a four way light would not be able to handle the situation as well as lights on each side of the street.

Traffic Light At Mill Street Bridge Will Be Erected During Time 'New Business Block Is Being Built

Owing to the necessity of barricading portions of South Mill and South Water streets during the construction of the new business block which it is planned to start soon, Councilman Reeves today had colleagues agree to place a traffic light at South Mill street bridge.

Ten feet of South Mill street, exclusive of the sidewalk, will be allowed the construction company. A barricade will be erected in South Water street. With the traffic light working it will be possible for traffic to use both thoroughfares.

A police resolution will be passed also, designating South Water street as a one-way route.

Reeves told colleagues a traffic light is at the electric station for trial and it will be erected by the city electrician.

Washington G. R. To Meet Thursday

George Washington Girl Reserves Will Have First Meeting In School Building

George Washington Junior High Girl Reserve club will have its first meeting of the season at 4 o'clock, Thursday afternoon. Through the cooperation of the principal of the school, B. K. Thacker, and the city superintendent of schools, Dr. C. C. Green, the meetings of the George Washington Girl Reserves will hitherto take place in the school building.

Miss Frances Barnes and Miss Lois Patterson are faculty advisors of the club. It will be more convenient for the club members to meet in the school than in the Y. W. C. A. building.

WILL DEMAND GREASE TRAPS

As soon as city council can enact legislation, garages and auto wash laundries here will have to install grease traps in their buildings, council today having indicated this in accepting a design prepared by Municipal Engineer Miller.

The grease which it is said enters the sanitary sewer system, interferes with operations at the city sewage disposal plant.

Miller's design has been prepared in such a manner that the water can escape but the grease is collected and can be removed.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE FOR SCOTT PAISLEY

East Side merchants honored Scott Paisley, local business man at a surprise birthday celebration in the Colonial coffee shop at noon today.

Warrant Charges
Abduction Of Girl
Man Held Here For Pittsburgh Authorities Denies Any Intent Of Abduction

S. L. Bonnett, scale repairman, who came here from Pittsburgh recently and has been engaged in his line of work here, was arrested this morning by Detective C. G. Logan and Officers Longstreth and Augustine on a warrant issued in Pittsburgh charging him with the abduction of Viola Carson, aged 15, of that city.

According to Bonnett and the girl, also a daughter and two sons of Bonnett, the Carson girl accompanied the Bonnett family here with the permission of the girl's mother, with whom they had roomed in Pittsburgh. There was no effort to abduct the girl and she was with the daughter of Bonnett as a guest on the Kinsey apartments on South Croton avenue.

It appears that the Carson girl has a step-father, Frank Morgan, and it is believed that it was he that made the charge against Bonnett, because the girl came out here without his consent. The Bonnett's planned to go from here to Youngstown in a few days and the Carson girl was to have gone along.

Bonnett and the girl are being held for officers from Pittsburgh, the authorities there being advised of the apprehension of them, and will return there with them as soon as they arrive.

"Your medicine did me so much good that I am willing to make a public statement, with the hope that all who suffer as I did, will profit by my experience and give Ten Herbs a trial."

"I was in such bad physical condition that I could hardly keep going. I had no appetite, and my stomach was badly disordered. I had gas pains most of the time. My liver was not working properly, and I was always using laxatives. At times I got terribly weak and dizzy. My kidneys caused me trouble. Day after day I had awful pains in my back. I did not sleep well at night, and when morning came I felt as tired as I did the night before. Although I spent quite a sum of money for medicines, nothing did me any good."

"Then I tried Ten Herbs, and got real relief. I became free of stomach trouble—no more gas pains. My kidneys began to function properly, and dizziness disappeared. My appetite improved, and I began to get a good night's rest. I gained in strength and no longer felt tired during the day."

Don't Expect Soap Alone to Give Dish Washing Results...

New water-softening cleanser is almost magic in action—with local hard water and 1/4 usual amount of soap. 1/2 the time.

A NEW discovery—not a soap, but a water-softening cleanser—makes any soap more effective by changing hard water to soft. It enables you to cut dish washing time in half. And you need use only one-fourth the usual amount of soap.

Women now find that greasy film on dishes has been eliminated and greasy scum is no longer left in the dishpan—in spite of this city's hard water.

What It Is
It is a preparation called Cimalene that you add to your washing water. Just a tablespoon or two.

Instantly, it takes all the harshness out of that water. Makes it soft as rain water.

At the same time, due to certain bland cleansing agents, it instantly DISSOLVES all dirt, stains and grime.

Use the soap or soap flakes you ordinarily do. Then see for yourself the amazing results. During 1929 women used over 24,000,000 packages of Cimalene for washing, for cleaning and in the dishpan.

Laboratory Proved
To assure results to you, we buy fine things, lingerie and delicate fabrics, costly china. Then by repeated washings, try to spoil or fade them.

Consider, please, what those things mean to you. Consider, too, that the minute you put this creation into water, all harshness is taken away—your hands protected from roughness, made soft, smooth and white. Then try it.

Paris Police Face Deficits

(International News Service) PARIS, Feb. 14.—A business government is what the Paris police department needs, for the task of policing this city is decided a losing proposition.

Next year's budget for the Prefecture of Police is fixed at roughly 18 million dollars, while last year's income amounted to a mere $6,000,000. A business man able to stimulate production and boost funds might be a howling success on the force.

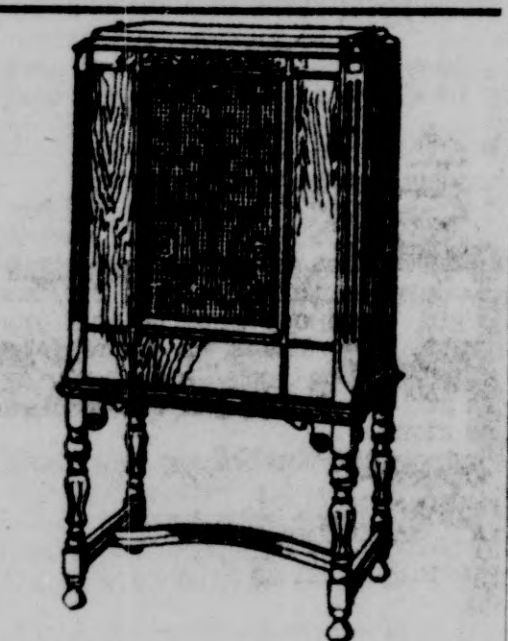

As it is, the city has to shoulder the annual deficit.

Money Machine Trick Is Used By German Swindlers

Secure $20,000 From Victims But Approach Wrong Man

(International News Service) BERLIN, Feb. 14.—Series production "a la Ford" of American dollar bills was demonstrated to money-lenders by two notorious swindlers in such a convincing way that the financiers fell for the trick and invested $20,000 in the business, never to hear of it again, of course.

The dollar machine consisted of a sort of inhaler, several mysterious tubes filled with all sorts of colored liquid in them, a boiler, and a flat iron, with which the notes were pressed. Forged duplicates of a genuine dollar bill actually appeared in the apparatus, but they were smuggled in through a juggler's trick.

The two swindlers, two Polish immigrants, were arrested by a detective, whom they approached as a prospective partner of their business, and are now awaiting trial.

May Ask Liggett To Testify Before Federal Grand Jury

(International News Service) DETROIT, Feb. 14.—Walter W. Cousin Of Duce Toils As Laborer

(International News Service) NILES, O., Feb. 14.—Dominic Mussolini, who toils day in and day out for $4.50 at the Carnegie Steel Mills at McDonald near here, is a cousin of the famed Benito Mussolini, Il Duce of Italy, but, as Dominic philosophically looks upon the situation: "What of it?"

"Here they ask you what can you do, not what can your cousin in Italy do. . . I'm happy, so, what of it?"

Dominic has been in this country for 21 years and he says he has no desire to return to Italy and least of all to become a parasite on his famous kin. But, nevertheless, Dominic is a great admirer of his black-shirted cousin.

"He's a born leader," Dominic describes Il Duce. "When we were children and played together, Benito always had to be boss. He's a smart man. He has made Italy what it is today."

Dominic said his cousin may visit the United States soon.

"If he should come, I'll lay off work for a day and visit him."

Find Coral Snake On Caribbean Isle

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 14.—The inhabitants of Corn Island, one of the remote "corners" of the world off the Caribbean coast of Nicaragua, believe there are no poisonous snakes on their island.

This belief is stated in a report of the museum of comparative zoology of Harvard university. Nevertheless, the report says, a party of Harvard zoologists found a coral snake, a deadly poisonous reptile, on the island.

"It is not uncommon," says the report, "to find these snakes, which are either subterranean in habit or nocturnal, concerning which the people living in the same region know little or nothing."

The Harvard expedition studied the birds, mammals, reptiles and amphibians of the two Corn islands.

Injury

(International News Service)
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 14.—
A hound dog belonging to George Pip-gras, Yankee hunter, was under the care of a veterinarian today after saving the life of Babe Ruth from the bite of a deadly rattlesnake.

While a foursome of hunters, including the Bambino, were seeking quail eight miles south of here, Ruth stepped within striking distance of a large rattler, coiled to strike.

Before Ruth had time to leap to safety, the canine charged the rattler and received the fangs of the reptile in his leg. Ruth, a moment later, killed the snake with a shot from his gun.

The dog was given anti-snake serum by members of the party and then brought on here, where he was turned over to a veterinarian.

Audience Demonstrative At Prohibition Hearings In Progress At Capital

(By ARTHUR C. WIMER)
(Special Washington Correspondent
New Castle News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 14.—A large, high-ceilinged room in the House Office Building, with great cut-glass chandeliers and mirrors, in which bewildering "facts" and "figures" are presented to an alternately happy and glum audience, is witnessing a public hearing given to national prohibition in its ten years of entity.

Outwardly, the House judiciary committee seems to have appealed to an interested public by its decision to hold hearings on the Celler resolution to modify the eighteenth amendment. The committee has filled the hearing room with a noisy, enthusiastic following of spectators and participants.

Inwardly, this placing of the prohibition question on the witness stand can hardly result in much of importance. Even the most optimistic of anti-Volsteaders presenting testimony admit that no immediately effective modification is expected.

But the by-products are interesting, by products in the form of a study of the committee, the plaintiffs and defendants, and the observers attending this court-room trial of national prohibition.

On the first day of the hearings the spectators threatened to play cow boy, to turn over tables, kick chairs into rubbish and shoot up the town in their enthusiasm. They laughed, applauded, nodded approval and turned to each other to exchange laudatory comment.

The situation was entirely unique, this public inquisition, and individuals who had watched in silence a ten-year, troubled reign of liquor restraint, decided to make the most of it.

Wets and dries alike were there, although the applause had it that the wet sympathy prevailed. And neither faction was loath to register its feelings for the benefit of the committee of 23 men sitting about a half-moon of tables up front.

The committee members themselves don't seem to relish this public display of feelings that have been under leash. They have said so, several times since the hearings began. But the spectators have been silent—officially and formally—for ten years, and the chairman of the committee might as well tell the waves of the Atlantic to cease beating about the base of Miss Liberty as to urge silence and dignity upon this throng.

The psychology governing the situation seems to carry back to the pre-diplomatic days of slap back when you're slapped. The intensity with which wets and dries alike hang on every word of the witnesses, selecting, assorting, seizing upon every opportunity to radiate approval is astonishing.

An interesting example of this partisan prejudice was called forth by one specific illustration which Walter W. Liggett, special writer and investigator, cited to the committee.

Mentioning names and places, Liggett told of a winning wet party staged in a brilliant roadhouse of a certain state. He told of the governor of that state who was at the party, of the police officers, the high executives, the crooks, the gamblers who fraternized together at the affair, and expressed the belief that such incidents as this clearly illustrate prohibition is not and never will be enforceable.

Wildly excited, the wets in the crowd of spectators acclaimed their victory by applause and verbal tributes.

"Were you there at that party," a committee member asked Liggett.

"I was not. I am more particular in the selection of my associates," answered Liggett, and it was the dries' opportunity to make noises of triumph while modificationists sat in pained silence.

Persons attending the hearings are not the rabble of the streets and speakshies. They are well-dressed, confident in carriage, and obviously intensely interested in this first appearance of prohibition in public trial. For a decade they have been applauding or criticizing in relative seclusion, and now that they have been given the opportunity to testify for or against Volsteadism in the open air they appear determined to put in a lick and a blow for the sentiment they endorse.

The members of the judiciary committee themselves seem aware of the immensity of the problem with which they are tampering. The role of a witness appearing before a congressional committee is usually a difficult one, and is made doubly so on most occasions by the alacrity with which the committee members use their legislative importance to embarrass these lesser lights endeavoring to illuminate the committee room with facts.

But the judiciary committee appears to be taking its job seriously, and the petty quibbling, so prevalent in other hearings—especially so in the lobby investigation—is entirely absent. Questions are asked of witnesses, but interrogations intended to dig the meat out of the shell of propaganda and prejudices, and not time-taking devices devoted to trifles.

So far as the immediate results of the hearings are concerned, liquor regulation will remain unaltered. But modificationists regard the trial as the beginning of something that may ultimately bring about the altering of the eighteenth amendment.

France Has 15,273 Public Dance Halls

(International News Service)
PARIS, Feb. 14.—France now counts exactly 15,273 public dance-halls according to the latest figures given out by the tax-collector.

Naturally, it is the Seine department which includes Paris that one dances the most. Here and there are no less than 742 halls.

Ardeche is unique in that there is not one hall in the entire department, but this does not mean there are no dances. All dancing is done in the family to the sound of the famous instrument, la cornemuse, a kind of pig-skin pipe.

The Good Physician

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

"Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses."—Matthew 8:17.

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

Having laid down the basic principles of his kingdom in the Sermon on the Mount, the King proceeds to demonstrate his right to lay claim to kingship by giving illustrations of his royal power in every conceivable realm. In the realm of disease he proves his kingship by his cure of leprosy, palsy and fever; in the realm of the deep by stilling the tempest on Galilee; in the realm of demons by casting the evil spirits out of the demoniacs of Gadara; in the realm of deity by absolving the paralytic of his sins; in the realm of death by raising to life, the daughter of Jairus; and in the realm of darkness by opening the eyes of two blind men. What credentials of royalty these are, that the Lord Jesus offers to prove his royalty in every realm—disease, deep, demons, deity, death and darkness.

The Golden Key of Faith
The key that opened the royal treasures to the King's beneficiaries was the golden key of faith: "Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean." "Speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed." "Lord, save us; we perish." "Jesus seeing their faith said, Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee." "My daughter is even now dead; but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live." "If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole." "Believe ye that I am able to do this? The blind men said unto him, Yea, Lord." So in every case, faith opened the treasures of the riches of the King as he responded, "I will; be thou clean." "I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel." "As thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee." "Thy faith hath made thee whole." "According to your faith, be it unto you."

The Invisible Illustrated
Our Lord's chief object in all his miracle was to bring a spiritual, rather than a physical blessing. The miracle was necessary to project the invisible upon the screen of the visible. This is best shown in today's lesson on the healing of the paralytic, whose four friends, with undaunted faith, tore an opening in the roof and lowered their helpless, but believing friend into the presence of Jesus.

The Physician At Work
Like a good physician, Jesus distinguished instantly between that which was basic and that which was merely symptomatic. A patient with a sore knee often has basic ailment not in his knee, but in his teeth. So here, a man is brought to the Good Physician to be treated for palsy, and "Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee." The Physician's critics sitting by were entirely logical in their reasoning when they came to their conclusion. "This man blasphemeth" for "Who can forgive sins but God alone?" The fault in their logic was that their major premise was wrong, in that it described Jesus as merely "this man," whereas, he was God as well as man, as he proceeded to demonstrate to them: "Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? For whether is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee, or to say, Arise, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of Man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (Then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house." Our need of Him is realized only as we appreciate that we are spiritually sick, for "They that are whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick."

(The International Uniform Lesson for Feb. 16 is Matt., 9:1-13, the subject being, "Jesus Healing and Helping") and the Gospel of Matt., 8:17, "Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases.")

Don't Go to Extremes To End Constipation

When bad breath, or a coated tongue, biliousness or headaches warn of constipation, don't take violent purgatives. There's no use when a candy Cascaret will stop the trouble in a jiffy; will cleanse your system pleasantly, and completely.

The relief you get so promptly from Cascarets is lasting. Cascarets are made from cascara, a substance which medical authorities agree actually strengthens the bowel muscles. So Cascarets are a blessing to old folks with weakened bowels; to children; to anyone in need of establishing regular bowel habits. Ten cents a box—all drug stores.

Escaped Prisoner Is Re-Captured By Warren Officials

(International News Service)
WARREN, Pa., Feb. 14.—Owen Taylor, who escaped from the county jail here last Sunday, when he and his brother Harold shot their way through the house of the sheriff adjoining, is back in the cell Thursday.

Sheriff's posse and state police were tipped Wednesday that Taylor had returned to his home at Taylor, near here though they found no trace of the missing man.

Questioning brought forth from Taylor's three-year-old daughter that "daddy came back"—they returned and found Taylor.

German Government Thwarts Art Sale

BERLIN, Feb. 14.—The intervention of the German government prevented one of the biggest art deals in recent times—namely the sale of America, presumably to John Pierpont Morgan, of the famous wing altar from the Cathedral of Luebeck for some $2,000,000.

The altar wings contain eight paintings by Hans Memling, master of the old Flanders school, made in 1491 and depicting the crucifixion.

An offer of between 6,000,000 and 8,000,000 marks was made through a Viennese agent. Art circles were convinced that Morgan was behind the offer.

As soon as the offer was published, the German government moved to put the altar under the "monument protection law," which prohibits its exportation.

Chorus Men In Film Land Are Heavyweights

By FREDERIC A. CHASE
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Feb. 14.—Chorus men aren't what they used to be, in cinema land at least. Little chorus men, light and slim, won't do in Hollywood. The chorus man of the movies has to be around six feet tall, and weigh 175 pounds, more or less; he must be brawny, to offer contrast to the dainty little chorus girls playing opposite him.

Anyway, he has to be if he wants to work in Hollywood. Chorus ensembles, at RKO studios.

"I have trained big fellows, with no previous stage experience, for my chorus, and have obtained marvelous results," the woman dance director says.

She predicts that few chorus men of the films will come from the stage. They must be big, broad and manly. Experience is to be a secondary consideration.

That Hollywood and its theme songs and other numbers given to the world via in film is a chorus ensemble, in Chopin, Brahms and other great composers of classical music, is the interesting conclusion drawn by a film supervisor, Robert Lord.

"Such pictures as 'The Gold Diggers', 'The Desert Song', and 'On With the Show' will be instrumental in causing a revival of interest in the more sophisticated notes from renowned composers," Lord declares.

Further, the world is getting better, and Hollywood is doing a large share in making it so by distributing melodies to the world through the medium of talking pictures, in the opinion of the supervisor.

"Since music is inspiring, educational and elevating to even the most grumpy people, its benefits are inestimable. It cannot be denied that it affects one's temperament for the better."

Perhaps the intelligentia has been misjudging Hollywood and its jazz, after all.

Invent a laugh meter and get rich. Hollywood is in great need of one, to forecast the amount of applause that will greet each funny speech or bit of action in a picture. The laughter will drown out the dialogue immediately following, if it is not gauged so that silent action takes up the applause period.

The producers fill in the time with pantomime until the laughter subsides and the dialogue may resume. But the question is how much time to allow.

Many late pictures, such as "Hit the Deck" and "The Vagabond Lover" have been presented to audiences in suburban theatres of Los Angeles as preview showings, and the amount of laughter noted. Then proper time could be allowed before the picture was released.

But the rub is that a picture has to be completed before it can be previewed.

(International News Service)
TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 14.—Lost in an early morning fog that blanketed this vicinity, William C. Glose, vice president of the Airport Development and Construction company of Philadelphia and Pilot Percy C. Henry, Jr., were killed early today when their airplane crashed near here.

Glose had been here for some time negotiating with local airport authorities on plans for the expansion of local aviation facilities.

He and Henry took off early today for Miami and were believed to have become lost in the dense fog. The wreck occurred in a direction opposite from that of Miami.

The cause of the crash has not been determined.

Youth Is Held By Police, Step-Father Is Slain With Gun

Washington Boy Kills His Step-Father When He Sees His Mother Crying

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—A seventeen-year-old boy was held today for shooting his step-father after the latter had quarreled with the boy's mother and made her cry.

Harvey Lowe, 37, a grocery clerk, is in emergency hospital and said by physicians to be not seriously injured.

The step-son, Harry Vincent Hazel, readily confessed to the shooting police said, and was booked on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

According to the police, Hazel said his mother had told him her husband had been mistreating her. The mother was crying, and the youth opened a trunk, got a pistol and turning on his stepfather, fired a single shot, which hit Lowe in the shoulder.

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 14.—Four preliminary injunctions were issued by Judge F. P. Schoonmaker in Federal court here today in cases involving alleged liquor law violations.

Proprietors of the four Erie places named in the preliminary injunctions were: Thomas Morrey, proprietor of a club on the second floor at 11 East and first street; Mrs. Katie Olson, proprietor of a club on the second floor at 1716 Peach street; George Barnack, proprietor of a store on the first floor and a club on the second floor at 1724 Parade street, and John Ross, proprietor of a club on the second floor at 1115 State street.

Hearings on the subject of making the injunctions permanent were set for March 17, in Erie.

Nurse And Doctor Held Him Prisoner

(International News Service)
CANON CITY, Colo., Feb. 14.—Rivalling the ages of a fiction thriller, the strange disappearance in London, Eng., of Mads Madsen, Canon City automobile dealer, had been told here today.

Madsen was rescued by a friend after being virtually held a prisoner because he could not pay a doctor's and nurse's bill, and has now been returned to America. He is at the Mayo clinic in Rochester, Minn., for treatment.

Returning from England, where he went to locate Madsen and bring him back to the United States, Ralph J. Wann, Canon City business man, told of Madsen's unusual experiences.

Nine weeks ago, Madsen, returning from Denmark, vanished in London. He had been called abroad to assist in settling the estate of his father.

From London, Mrs. Madsen received a cablegram advising her of the date upon which her husband expected to sail for home. He failed to arrive as scheduled, and no other word was received from him. Inquiries were in vain.

Wann was persuaded to go to London to investigate. Congressman Guy U. Hart of Canon City and Secretary of State Stimson arranged for immediate passage.

In London Wann found Madsen desperately ill in a fifth floor attic room. He was being held prisoner by a doctor and a nurse who had used his available money for x-ray pictures and examinations, Wann said.

Confronted by Wann, the doctor at first refused to release the patient.

Scotland Yard officers were asked to intervene and through their efforts Wann was able to obtain the release of the sick prisoner according to the story told friends here.

Flood Rescue Scorned By Aged Negro Woman

PRINCETON, Ind., Feb. 14.—Flood rescue parties today reached the water-surrounded two-room hut of Aunt Mary Davis, 116-year-old Negress, but she refused to leave.

"I've had 'backy' for my pipe, wood for the fire and enough time for communion with the Lord," she explained as she puffed her old cob. Her horse and cow occupied the other room.

Senate Confirms Justice Hughes

Vote Of Confirmation Taken At Session Last Night Is 52-26

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Charles Evans Hughes of New York became chief justice of the United States when the Senate, just before 7 last evening, confirmed his nomination, by a vote of 52 to 26.

The roll call by which the Senate advised and consented to the nomination sent to it by President Hoover of Mr. Hughes to succeed William Howard Taft of Ohio gave Mr. Hughes a two-thirds vote of the membership present at the close of the fourth day of stormy debate in opposition to his appointment, an opposition for which history records no precedent for nearly a century.

The end of the storm came suddenly, after the opposition, led by Senators George W. Norris of Nebraska and William E. Borah of Idaho, Republican insurgents, had learned by two earlier test votes that the fight was hopeless.

Applicants Near County's Quota

C. M. T. C. Applicants In County Are Becoming Quite Numerous

Major W. Fulton Jackson, Dental Reserve, chairman of the Citizen's Military Training Camp activities in

Lawrence county, stated today that the number of applicants for permission to attend the camps provided for this area have exceeded expectations and that the county quota of 39 had almost been reached already, although it will be some time before the camps are opened up.

Indications are that the applicants from Lawrence county may exceed the quota, in which case, however, it is possible that those over the quota, may be provided for, through other districts failing to get their quota and if this county is the first to exceed its quota, its extra men will be the first to be used in filling up unfilled quotas of other districts.

Natural Glow Of Youth Beats Cosmetics, Says Appel

"It is not at all surprising with the marked progress made along so many lines that the eternal quest for beauty and the reluctance to accept old age should take modern and so-called scientific form. Lip sticks, skin preparations, beauty potions, slenderizing devices, hair dyes, bleaches, face peeling, ointments, electrolysis, bath, sun-lamps and colonic irrigation are among the methods that have in consequence attained popularity," said Doctor Theodore B. Appel, State Secretary of Health, today.

"Of course it is natural to do everything possible to increase one's appearance. On the other hand, it is extremely easy these days to rely entirely upon products that are sold by way of seductive mile-a-minute advertisements.

"Drug store checks, crimsoned lips, and all the rest of it, whether it applies to man or woman, are largely a matter of taste. And there is no desire to minimize their possible value as a supplement to natural attraction provided they are harmless and used with discretion. However, the rub most decidedly arises when people place a hundred percent reliance upon commercial beautifiers to accomplish the job that the observance of the fundamental living rules are alone supposed to do.

"It is certainly more easy and comfortable to apply the glow of youth with a cloth than it is to retain or attain it by sleeping adequately, eating reasonably, exercising properly, avoiding excesses of all kinds, and in general, strictly following a routine that will develop and maintain the highest expression of vim, vigor and vitality. But it is not good business to do so.

"It should be emphasized that those who place their entire faith in beautifying packages, appliances and tricks that are alleged to do the work without any personal assistance are merely fooling themselves. Nature does not ask much in exchange for abundant health, but what she does demand she insists upon getting if happy results are to follow.

Finn's Folly Was Once Showplace Of Rugged Land

Shepherd, Frozen To Death, Once Lived In Palatial Mansion

(International News Service) DENVER, Col., Feb. 14.—Elmer Finn, 44, a shepherd, who was frozen to death during the terrific cold wave which swept over Wyoming recently, once lived in the fiction-like splendor of a mansion with gold-plated doors, a luxurious swimming pool, billiard rooms, bowling alleys and elaborate furnishings.

The palatial home, situated on the rugged slope of Reservoir hill, in the famous Cripple Creek mining district, was known as "Finn's Folly". Built by J. Morris Finn, once prominent in mining and legal circles of Colorado at a cost of several hundred thousand dollars, the mansion was dismantled following the elder Finn's death and rebuilt in Colorado Springs. Elmer Finn, whose original name was Elmer Southerland, was born at Norway, Mich., and was a stepson of J. Morris Finn. He was well educated, according to friends. At one time he served as a page in the United States Senate.

Gas Tax For Six Months Is Over Three Millions

Lawrence County Motorists Contributed $30,217.62 During Half Year

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Feb. 14.—The first six months of the four cent gasoline tax netted the department of highways $3,132,880, it was announced by the state treasury today.

The collections show an increase of $1,125,059 over the same period in 1928.

At the end of the present six month period, July 1 of this year, the tax will revert to three cents.

Counties will receive one-eighth of the tax collected in each and the remaining total is disbursed by the department of highways.

Lawrence county motorists contributed $30,217.62 of this amount, while Beaver county had the most of the immediately surrounding counties with $45,634.74. Mercer county had $35,762.24 and Butler county, $38,618.18.

Wife Is Husband's Guest In Auto Rides

Ruling By Circuit Court Of Appeals Affirms Federal Decision

(International News Service) DENVER, Col., Feb. 14.—A wife is her husband's guest when they go for an automobile ride, the United States circuit court of appeals has ruled. The ruling affirmed a damage award in federal district court to Daisy Fanning against the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway.

Mrs. Fanning was injured when the car driven by her husband missed a bridge and plunged into a rail cut. The lower court held the railway responsible for not properly protecting and grading the approach to the bridge.

The case was appealed. The law that the negligence of an operator of a car is not imputable to a passerby or a guest also applies to a wife, the appeals court ruled.

Glimpses Of Waiting Room Of Baby Clinic Interesting

(By JANET KISSINGER)

A chorus of 35 baby voices, lustily singing "mammy songs" greeted the ears of the writer as she entered the baby clinic on the third floor of the New Castle Dry Goods building Thursday.

Not that these babies were particularly scared about the ordeal of being examined, and they were certainly not ill, but they appeared to think there should be a certain amount of competition in the matter of voices.

Proud young mothers balanced their babies upon their knees. It was plain to see that each mother thought her own baby were the cleverest of them all. But they were all clever babies. One could coo just like a chick. Another baby was extremely interested in a necklace around its mother's neck, but after the wearer of the necklace gave the mischievous baby a little slap on the wrist, the baby contented itself by playing with its toes. Then there was another little cupid which had a ring on his finger and a necklace around his neck, and without clothes. In the center of the large waiting room, there was a long table on which were piles of baby clothes. Before taking their babies into the office to be weighed, the mothers stripped the infants of the clothes, and when the weighing was over, the babies were laid on the table and dressed.

It is a real art to dress one of those babies—any baby, we suppose. They kick their little feet and arms and some of them screw up their faces in preparation for vigorous protest. But surprisingly short time the babies are dressed in clothes which are so small that it seems, well, rather simple.

The conversation of the mothers in the waiting room? Correct. They talk about their babies. The talk runs on these lines:

"Is it a boy or a girl?" "Now isn't that nice." "How old is he now? Five months? It certainly is surprising how quick they grow!" "She is so good natured. I save no trouble with her at all." "No, he doesn't crawl yet." "He has gained two pounds in the past week" (etc.).

In the examining office the nurses, Miss Sara Burkhardt and Mrs. Bertha Smith, were busy making records of the babies examined by Dr. William Wallace. Sometimes, according to Miss Burkhardt, nearly 40 babies are brought to be examined. Some babies are brought when only three weeks old, but as a general rule the ages range from two months to school age.

The clinic is for well babies and is held every Thursday morning.

EAGLE ROCK, Calif., Feb. 14.—

"The age of cynicism on the part of college men and women is passing," Dr. Remsen D. Bird, president of Occidental College, declared upon his return from a tour of many eastern universities and colleges.

"There is a greater simplicity in the tastes of college men in amusements, dress and student activities," Dr. Bird said. "College alumni are awakening to the new opportunities in adult education in connection with their own alma maters."

Explorer Lives Year On Fish

MINNEAPOLIS, Miss., Feb. 14.—A story of how he lived for a year and did well, on a strictly fish diet while marooned with a family of Eskimos at the mouth of the Mackenzie river, was told, among other anecdotes, by Dr. Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Arctic explorer, to medical students Tuesday in the University of Minnesota anatomy amphitheater.

"After a time I learned to eat decayed fish like the rest of the Eskimos," he declared, "and after the year was over, I found that I had gained 10 pounds and weighed more than I had at any other time in my life. I felt perfectly all right, both physically and mentally."

"In the Eskimo house where I lived for that year," Dr. Stefansson said, "the temperature was kept at 80 or 85 degrees above zero by the burning of blubber. Some times it got to 100 degrees when the women were cooking. 'We were nothing but a pair of breeches, and the perspiration rolled off us.'"

Three States Are Big Salt Producers

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 14.—Michigan, New York and Ohio have furnished 72 per cent of the table salt sold or used by producers in recent years, according to a statement issued January 24 by the bureau of mines, department of commerce, which follows in full text:

The salt deposits in the United States that furnish salt for commercial purposes are, with the exception of small deposits used for local supply, confined to definite regions in the northeastern, south central and western parts of the country. Michigan, New York and Ohio, included in the first group, have furnished 72 per cent of the total salt sold or used by producers in recent years, according to statistics gathered by the United States bureau of mines, department of commerce. Kansas and Louisiana, in the central belt of states, are the next largest producers and California is chief among the western states.

County Federation

Of Women's Clubs

WHAT A DIFFERENCE

Just twenty-five years ago an exponent of the United States, Grover Cleveland, voiced a protest through the newspaper against "the menace of the women's clubs."

When the board meeting of The General Federation of Women's Clubs was held in Washington this January, President Hoover very graciously took time to meet this group of women. After greetings were exchanged the president of these United States said to the president of this federation of women, "Madame President, I am going to call on your battalion for assistance." He had recognized a power, three million strong, that he could safely put back of the machinery of our government.

When Mrs. Sippel, Federation president, responded, "Mr. President, when you call, we are ready," she placed at the call of the President, whenever or however he may need us, every club woman that belongs to the Federation. Her faith in her constituency, us, as she so readily responded to his statement that breathes confidence, is our challenge to be ready and efficient in the understanding and abetting of the efforts of President Hoover as he administers the affairs of the nation.

The recognition of our strength and sympathetic understanding as a power to be used in the guiding of a nation puts upon each club woman a personal responsibility to keep this great body of women moving steadily onward always in the ways of justice, peace, and righteousness. It places upon each club woman a personal responsibility to think through and around every phase of our government that needs the guiding hand of our President; that hand that needs our massed assistance.

That the merit of our work as a Federation has been recognized by the President is proven in his appointment, to his Commission on Child Welfare and Protection, of Mrs. Sallie Orr Dunbar as a member of the Public Health Service and Administration Section of which Surgeon General Hugh S. Cumming, head of the Public Health Service, is chairman. Mrs. Dunbar is chairman of Public Welfare and Dean of Department Chairmen in the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

In speaking of the work of this Commission, President Hoover has said: "There is a crying need to make available, in simple, lucid terms the findings of experts. While this need remains unfulfilled, child lives are not only falling short of normal possibilities, but are actually being marred and wasted through ignorance. The wisest move in the conservation of child life at the present moment seems to be to develop technique and machinery to transplant scientific data into human terms."

"Our new field is the systematic determination of the shortcomings in child health protection, community by community, and the demonstration of remedy. We do not propose to be either seers or preachers. Our aim is rather the scientific determination of the defects in community life, the suggestion of remedies and the enlistment of all voluntary and official forces, in their communities to their solution."

To the furthering of the work of this Commission are the club women of Lawrence County morally committed by the sincere response of our Federation President. Nor will we fail the expectations of our Nation's President.

Ruse Frees Two In Eau Claire Jail

EAU CLAIRE Wis., Feb. 14.—A clever ruse on the part of two youthful prisoners in the Eau Claire county jail tonight enabled them to casually walk out of the jail and make their escape.

James Curry, Eau Claire, and Lorin Peterson, Rhinelander, offered to carry the supper dishes from their cell block to the kitchen, after the meal was completed. Undersheriff William Montgomery, in charge of the jail, in the absence of Sheriff A. J. Crane, gave the men permission to do so. The pair carried the dishes to the

Predict Gain In Employment

U. S. Employment Service Sees Better Outlook For Near Future

UPWARD SWING
NOW IN PROGRESS

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Admitting there was a great volume of unemployment apparent during the first half of January, the United States employment service, department of labor, today predicted the country would be on a normal employment basis within 60 to 90 days.

All reports indicate that an upward swing in employment is in motion, the department's report said.

The outlook for iron and steel is unusually encouraging, large orders having been placed for all classes of such products and many furloughed workers have been called back. The same is true in the automobile and allied industries.

While the coal industry is still suffering from considerable unemployment, a noticeable improvement was recorded during the latter part of January. Much unemployment has been caused by severe weather conditions, which curtailed building operations and municipal improvements.

Road construction on a scale larger than in any recent years will absorb much of the employment, the survey stated.

Son Sues For $75,000 For Beatings As Boy

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 14.—After thinking over the beatings he received from his father through childhood, George W. Blei, twenty-one, son of a wealthy steel operator, sued his father today for $75,000.

George F. Blei, partner in the Hollingsworth & Beil Steel Company, is the father. The bill states "a black snake" whip was used sometimes and that most of the beatings were given because of his low grades in school. As a result of the father's continued brutality, according to Attorney Winterbotham, the youth is now mentally incompetent in some respects.

State Officials Suffer Injuries In Machine Crash

Frank St. Clair And Benson E.
Taylor Injured When Auto
Crashes Into Pole

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Feb. 14.—Frank St. Clair, chief of the bureau of engineering and construction, is confined to his home here today while Benson E. Taylor, secretary of the state department of property and supplies, is still in a Coatesville hospital from injuries suffered when the machine in which the two men were riding left the road and struck a telephone pole on the Horseshoe pike, near Honeybrook, early today. Neither is believed to have been seriously injured.

Taylor's injuries were confined to probable internal injuries and shock while St. Clair sustained a fractured left arm and body bruises. The latter left the hospital this morning.

The accident is said to have occurred when the machine skidded, left the road and became unmanageable, crashing headlong into the pole along-side the road.

The injured men were given first aid treatment by Dr. George Morton of Honeybrook and later taken to the hospital.

Two Are Killed In Argentine As Radicals Flareup

Group Of Radicals Descend Upon Conservative Meeting
Near Buenos Aires

(International News Service)
BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 14.—Two men were killed and thirteen wounded, some of them seriously, early today when a gang of radicals descended upon a conservative political meeting in the town of Lincoln, near here.

The dead were two farm laborers who were struck by flying bullets. Scores of shots were fired.

Among the wounded are Manuel Fresco and Umberto Vignart, members of the National Chamber of Deputies.

Truck Driver Is Held By Police

(International News Service)
ERIE, Pa., Feb. 14.—Police today are investigating the story of Thomas D. E. Rush, who was arrested here last night following a shooting.

Rush, who is a driver for the Scott Transportation company operating trucks between Cleveland and Buffalo, said that he fired at three men who, hurled bricks through the windshield of his truck.

Rush said that he wounded or possibly killed one of the men, though police have no trace of the men having been found.

To Lay Cornerstone Of New Foch Hospital

PARIS, Feb. 14.—The cornerstone of a $1,000,000 hospital dedicated to Marshall Foch will be laid on March 30, the first anniversary of the death of the great military leader.

Numerous Americans subscribed to the institution, which will be reserved for the French middle class people considered ineligible to charity and yet unable to pay for entry into private clinics.

HIGHLIGHTS OF HISTORY

By J. Carroll Mansfield

The Story Of American Industry
America In The "Home" — Part 5

WITH BUT FEW SLIGHT IMPROVEMENTS, THE FARMING METHODS EMPLOYED IN COLONIAL DAYS IN AMERICA WERE THE SAME THAT ALL HUSBANDMEN HAD PRACTICED SINCE THE DAYS OF MOSES. WHEAT WAS STILL HARVESTED BY HAND, WITH SICKLE AND SCYTHE, BACK-BREAKING LABOR. THE GRAIN WAS SEPARATED FROM THE STRAW BY BEATING THE SHEAVES SPREAD OUT UPON THE GROUND WITH A FLAIL, HEAVY, HINGED CLUB.

ON SOME OF THE WEALTHIER FARMS THE KERNELS OF WHEAT WERE BEATEN OUT ON THE "THRASHING FLOOR", USUALLY A CIRCULAR TRACK OF HARD EARTH ON WHICH THE BUNDLES OF WHEAT WERE STREWN WHILE HORSES WERE DRIVEN OVER THEM AT A TROT.

MAN HAD LEARNED TO HARNESS TWO OF THE FORCES OF NATURE—WIND AND WATER. IN MANY PARTS OF THE COLONIES COULD BE FOUND WINDMILLS FOR GRINDING WHEAT INTO FLOUR. THE TYPE OF WINDMILL SHOWN ABOVE HAD A REVOLVING TOP TO PRESENT THE HUGE VANES TO THE WIND.

THROUGHOUT THE COLONIES, WHEREVER THERE WAS A SWIFT RIVER, A TUMBLING LITTLE STREAM OR WATER THAT COULD BE DAMMED UP, WERE CRIST-MILLS PERCHED ON THE BANK, THEIR CLACKING WATER WHEELS DRIVING THE MILLSTONES THAT GRIND THE WHEAT FOR THE NEIGHBORING FARMERS.

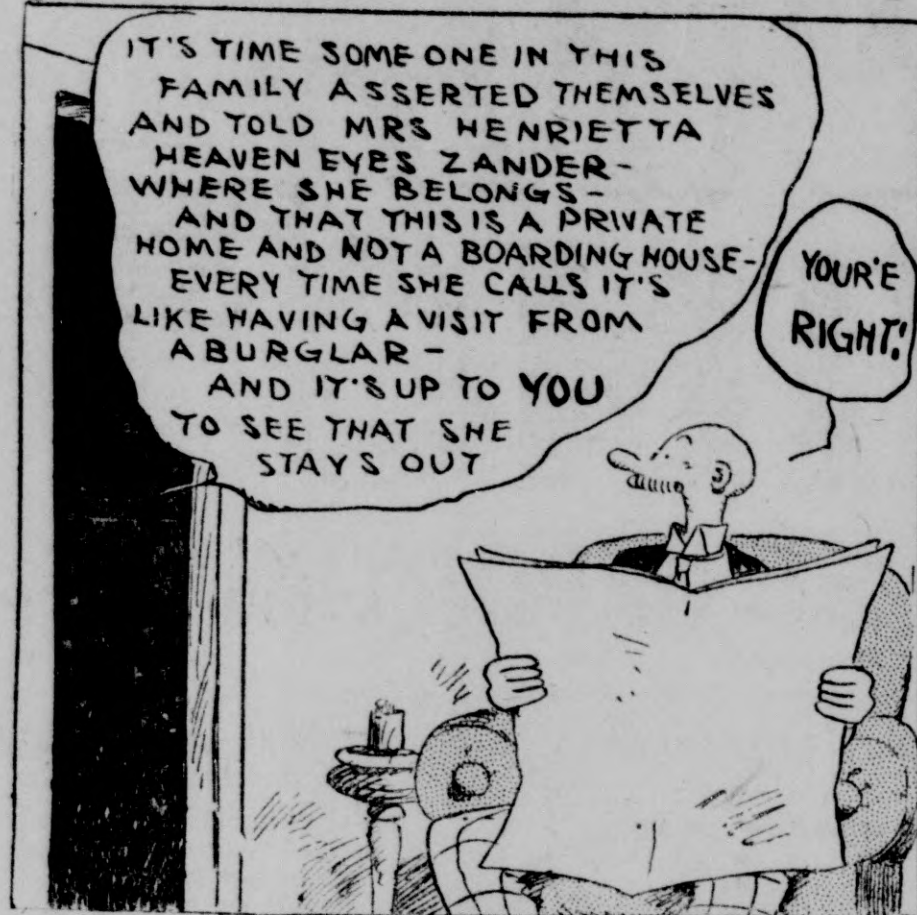

TOMORROW—CONTINUED.

Westminster Trims Waynesburg 50 To 13

Titans Win In Walk Over Waynesburg Team In Tri-State Battle
Thursday

Delehanty And Crowell Play Star Roles As Lawther-men Flash Spotless Offense

By "BUGS" WALTHER MOVING to the Tri-State Conference that there is nothing seriously wrong with their offensive machine, the Westminster Titans handed the Yellow Jackets of Waynesburg a severe pasting last night at New Wilmington. The final tally was 50 to 13. It was a league victory for the Lawthermen but a complete rout for the Wolpack.
It literally rained baskets all night long. In the first few seconds of play William "Red" Crowell sunk a two-pointer, and for the next thirty-nine minutes the Titans didn't get much else done but score points, of course, that was the primary reason for their being on the field. Eighteen field goals and fourteen fouls gave the Westminsterites half a hundred points.
Waynesburg was held to a pair of field goals, and young Mr.
Avery had both of them.

Six victories have been registered by the Titans in the Tri-State playing, and the only team that looks like a barrier to the flag is the Duquesne bunch.

When Delehanty and O'Donovan are on then look out, and that is just what happened in the exceptionally fine evenings and scored six times from the field and had six fouls to score eighteen of the Westminster points. O'Donovan had a couple of field goals and when Delehanty and "Babe" are not going then "Red" Crowell is and the Farrell boy followed Delehanty with five field goals.
(Here's the reason Crowell played a whale of a game last night, Papa Crowell was over from Farrell to watch his son work out, and it was the first time that he had ever seen his son in a college game. He wasn't one bit disappointed by the actions of the elongated boy. (Delehanty's whole family must have there.)

25 to 6 At Half
The first half found the Titans ahead 25 to 6. Avery had the only basket for the Waynesburg team, and they shot collectively four fouls. But you can't score field goals when you get apast Fisher and Rice is like trying to run through a stonewall with no door.

In that lopsided first half Delehanty had three baskets, Crowell had two, and each of the other Westminster boys had a field goal a piece, and this together with nine fouls gave the Titans a big lead. Coach Lawther saw fit to give his regulars a little rest in the first half and sent Whitey Siljander the Pittsburgh boy, and Danny Considine to the fray. They both played nice ball. Coach Wolf sent two subs to the game also replacing Ullom with Hathaway, and Patsch by Mancuso.

With Westminster leading 45 to 8 in the final half and only a few minutes left to play Coach Lawther sent Considine back to the floor and Delehanty came out amid a rousing reception by the fans, he had played a whale of a game and was displaying the flowers that the press box didn't get. Hamas got in the game for O'Donovan. Blanner went in for Rice.
Siljander returned to the game in the final two minutes of play for Considine.

Gerson Jewelers Win League Game

The Gerson Jewelers defeated the Hart Jewelers of Warren, O., by a score of 22 to 20 in a sizzling game in the Jewish league at Youngstown, O. The victory put the locals into a tie for first place with the B. M. D. team when Rhodans downed the league leaders 28 to 27 in an extra-period game.

The locals led at the half 12 to 3, but the Warren team came back for the third and fourth periods with a rally that just about proved fatal.
Sac Levin led the Gersons with 11 points and holding his man scoreless.
Plant and E. Solomon played a great game. Koppell was the leading scorer for the losers with 11 points.

Yankee Owners To Attend Fight And Talk With Ruth

Colonel Ruppert And Ed Barrow Leave For Miami To See Sharkey-Scott
Fight

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service
NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The Yankees no greater aid to stealth and privacy than that afforded by a carnival crowd, Miami, Fla., may be the scene of two fights before the end of the month and, if so, the other one will be between George Ruth and the New York ball club. It will be over the pressing question of whether George is to be paid more than a bank president or only as much.

Anyhow, Colonel Ruppert and Ed
Barrow are off to Miami next week because they wouldn't think of missing the Sharkey-Scott fight and it is only a coincidence that Ruth wouldn't think of missing it, either. The Colonel's interest in prize fights heretofore, as a matter of fact, has kept pace with his interest in the average struggle cleaner. It has been a great struggle but manfully he has managed to stay away from most of them.
They hold them in his own ball yard and he stays home to keep an eye on the furnace or something. Then they take one a thousand miles away and immediately the colonel is avid on the trail.

He must see that fight and maybe he will see two—one of them from the ringside and the other from mid-rig.

Giants Start Trip To Southern Camp

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Spring arrives this afternoon for the New York Giants as the first party of McGraw-men leave for training camp at San Antonio, Tex. Only three players will make up the Giant party leaving today but a large contingent will join them at St. Louis tomorrow.

Unless there is a break in the ranks of the holdouts, the Giants will open their training season without an infield, Bill Terry, Travis Jackson and Freddie Lindstrom having failed to note the dotted line on Giant contracts.

Columbia Gridders Get Practice Call

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—They were dragging out the pigskins at Columbia university today following the announcement by Coach Lou Little that spring football practice is to begin next Wednesday.

First sessions will be held in the Columbia gymnasium until suitable weather.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

Primo Carnera, huge Italian, now cavorting pugilistically here and there in the United States, is in a good position to win a seat in Millionaire Street and his earning capacity will not be curtailed unless he fights someone who can actually fight. In fact, it is Primo's size rather than ability that has won him at least $50, 000 since he invaded the United States.

Some believe Primo to be the biggest man to have embarked upon a pugilistic life, but, according to tales that have been spun to us, Ed Dunk-horst, known as the "human freight car," may not have been as tall but he was heavier. As a fighter Dunk-horst was not so hot; in fact, he wasn't even warm and right now there are some who apparently have Carnera labeled as a mediocre fighter not who may be developed.

The public is curious to see something or someone out of the ordinary and pilots of Primo understand this very well. They have capitalized his every move and before he is through as an attraction he will have plenty of money with which to purchase olive groves, should he so desire, upon his return to Sunny Italy. Right now Mr. Carnera has taken the play away from Jack Dempsey—but that is because Dempsey is keeping quiet.

No one in America gave a tumble to Primo until he met Young Strickling in Europe. They met twice. Each bout ended in a foul and to each went a "dud" victory. No one has ever accused Strickling of being the real cream of heavyweight pugilism here but the backers of Mr. Carnera were quick to sense his money making power and put exploitation agents to work.

They needed money, so a story to us relate and Leo Flynn, New York was asked to furnish it. Leo, a rather smart figure in the world of fistic, fell down badly when he gave the request a horse laugh. Bill Duffy, New York, fell and as a consequence it is said he is now waiting to see Primo draw the Attell, a former featherweight champion, is boxing tutor to the huge Italian.

Sankey McCullough, infidelier with the Massillon Agathons last season, will go south with the New York Giants this spring. Two years ago Sankey's name was signed to a contract and since then he has been gathering experience. Sankey is one of the best infideliers that has played hereabouts in recent years. The call to Sankey also brings to light the fact that when his brother Paul pitched for Toledo, John McGraw offered $30,000 for his services. However, the deal failed to go through. He later went to the Washington Senators, landed in the Southern league and will probably play with Munson. See on all money that his brother Paul the Attell, a former featherweight champion, is boxing tutor to the huge Italian.

Fight fans have not yet finished talking of the fistic show at Jolly bow last Monday which was headlined Babe Ruth and Tommy Maroon.
It was an exciting bout from first to last bell in every bout. Marshall Crochet had a beating from Joe at Joliet, a Franklin but turned the trick rather handsomely in the last three rounds here.

Jackie Ward and Bobby Dempsey put on a hair-raising contest for six rounds and if it is possible to remate them for some future show they will tip here and the second for Dempsey, who expected to flatten Ward in a punch. Before the fight started Bobby told us: "I'm going to try and flat-ten Ward in a punch." When he tried that he started something fans liked.

The return of Red Jaddabird was a big success for him, but Red is not the boy he was. In fact, had Perotta executed his shots better in the second Red might have been laid out.
Perotta hit him with a right but Jad-abird recovered and in the third when Jadabird got George going he sensed the kill quick and Perotta was through from the time he first went down.

The effect of infighting was visibly told when Ruth and Maroon clashed.
Infighting is not spectacular and some fans don't like to see it but they at least know today what good solid whacks to the stomach, heart and kidney can cause. Ruth weakened Maroon more than Maroon weakened him and a short punch to the heart dropped Tommy for seven in the ninth and cost him the decision.

Don't tell anyone but the secret is out—yes, sir, the boys in New York

Four Games In Church League

There are four games on tap tonight in the New Castle Church League.
The first game starts at 8 o'clock.
In the first game the Central Christians meet the Epworth M. E. team. The other games are as follows—St. John's Lutherans vs. First
M. E.; Third U. P. vs. First Baptists; Highland U. P. vs. Central Presbyterians.

Two games are billed for Saturday the Epworth team battling the Wesley M. E. and the Central Christians and Mahoning M. E. teams tangling.

In the City League game for Saturday the New Castle Boosters take on the Toddy Five again. This is the feature game on the schedule for both teams. The Boosters can win the second half again if they take the measure of the Toddy team tomorrow night, but the Toddy do not think that they are going to lose tomorrow night. With Sam Richards in the Toddy lineup things should be different.

The City League tomorrow night follows the two games in the Church League.

Grimes To Confer With Dreyfuss On Matter Of Salary

Followers Of Pittsburgh Pirates Believe Grimes Will Sign Soon

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 14.—Pitcher Burleigh Grimes, ace of the Pirate flingers, had an engagement with the club owners this afternoon to discuss a contract for the coming season.
Grimes and Sam Dreyfuss, vice president of the Pirates, thus far have been unable to get together on the matter of salary.

Admittedly the most valuable hurler on the staff, Grimes believes he is worth $20,000 next season. He conferred with Dreyfuss for two hours yesterday, but at the end of the session the player and official were as far apart as ever on the salary question.

Pirate battersmen depart next Tuesday for spring training in Paso Robles, Calif. Followers of the sport believe Grimes will be in the fold by that time.

Union-Mt. Jackson Teams Play Tonight

Union High girls and boys varsity teams play Mt. Jackson tonight at the Union High gym in Scotland Lane. It was announced today by Coach Boyd. The first game between the girls will start at 7:45 o'clock.
The Boyd coached machine hopes to take the measure of the Mt. Jackson quintet, and thus stay in the race for the County Class B title. A good game is looked for.

Italian Wrestler Defeats Canadian

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—George Cal-za of Italy today added Jack Taylor, Canadian champ, to his list of victims.
Calza downed Taylor in the feature of the wrestling show at the Bronx Coliseum last night.

Gino Garibaldi, Italy, threw Vanka Zelesnik, Russian.

Grimes Has Not Yet Signed Contract

Burleigh Grimes and Pirate officials failed to reach a salary agreement during a long conference yesterday at Pittsburgh. It is reported that Grimes has asked for $20,000. The amount offered is not known.

New Castle To Play Evans City Tonight

Biggest Crowd Of Season Expected To Attend One Of Best Games

Victory Will Mean That Locals Can Only Be Tied In Sectional Race

By CHARLES LANDOLF

New Castle high basketball team will play one of the most important games of the year tonight at senior high gym, when they oppose Evans City in a regular Section Three league game at 8:15 o'clock. In the preliminary game the New Castle girls' team will play the girls' team of Franklin high school of Franklin, Pa.
This game will start at 7:15.

Should New Castle defeat Evans
City it will mean that if New Castle loses the remaining two games on the schedule they can only be tied for the championship of the league.

Should this be the result then a playoff will be required to decide the champs of this section. If any team is able to turn the trick it will be Evans City. It looks like the fans are in store for a good game this evening. Evans City has been preparing for this game for the last two weeks and are coming here in tip top shape, hoping to take the measure of the local quintet. New Castle defeated the Butler quintet in their first meeting and hope to repeat. The Evans City followers are rather optimistic.

Coach Phil H. Bridgman sent the passers through a light workout at senior high gym last night and stated that his boys were ready.
The biggest crowd of the season is expected to watch tonight's game.

New Wilmington

Meets Shenango

The New Wilmington High boys and girls will play Shenango at the Community House Friday February 14. In all probability both games will be very interesting as the games played at Shenango last month were very closely contested. The local boys are in a slump but coach Karsten has made a very decided change in the lineups and the boys have looked very impressive in practice all week.
They will get a chance to redeem themselves for the beating that Shen-ango handed them before.

Prospects are in store for one of the best games of the season when Bessemer plays here one week from Friday evening. In a recent game at Bessemer the Bessemer boys were handed the first defeat of the season by the Wilmington boys. Chances are that this will be just as good as the last game.

California Defeats

Slippery Rock Five

California Teachers last night defeated Slippery Rock Normal school in basketball 60 to 23 at California, Pa. Nell led the attack with 10 baskets.

Spring training largely consists of a ball player sweating off five pounds in the afternoon and adding six more at the dinner table.

New York will see professional football at night next fall. Just making dough while the moon shines.

And speaking of moonshine, it has always puzzled this department how they manage to get some of the athletes further south than the Tennessee mountains.

Maybe it's because the farther south they go the nearer they come to Cuba and Mexico.

What makes life still harder for the poor fight fans is that so many of these advertised Cherokee Indian fighters look like watermelon is their national fruit.

Rogers Hornsby is said to have great deal of promise as an aviator.
Well, anyway, in a helmet he looks a great deal like Lindbergh.

STARS OF YESTERDAY

BY AL WINFIELD

The smart ball fan of the middle nineties never missed a ball game between the old Cleveland Spiders and the Baltimore Orioles if he could help it. Those games were picnics with two fine clubs fighting fiercely for victory and two past masters of repartee lashing each other with stinging wisecracks.

If there was one man in the old National league who could tell the manager of the Spiders, when it came to lurid languages it was Muggsy Mc-Graw, third sacker for the Orioles.

Muggsy was not the silver-haired, round chap that he is today as he guides the destiny of New York's Giants, but a fiery player with a flashing temper.

When the clubs clashed in championship play or in the Temple Cup series of 1895 and 1896, the verbal fur flew.

With Tebeau covering first Mc-Graw would forsake the first base coaching box and station himself in the third base coaching zone. The width of the diamond prevented a battle between the two, though McGraw was just as eager for a little fist swinging as Pat ever was.

"Hi! Hi!" McGraw would bellow,
"Look what thinks it's a first baseman. Or does it think?"
"Wash your face, sweetheart," Tebeau's answering roar would convulse the stands, "there's cobwebs on your brains."

"Talks too, boys," McGraw would snap back. "Pretty soon it will take up ping pong."
"Hey, Muggs, take off that monkey suit. You're in the wrong game, sonny. Back to driving drays for you."

That last remark would so infuriate Tebeau he would proceed to paint the atmosphere purple and for the rest of the nine innings the diamond would crackle with oral artillery.
Sometimes these "chats" would lead to a clubhouse scrap.

A dramatic feature was presented when Rev. Maxwell sang "Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" and an echo in the voice of Harold Marshall, unseen, came back with "Tell Mother I'll Be There" and later the two soloists joined in a lovely concluding duet.

He and Louis Morin were in a bar-room brawl with a forest guard, Lucien Cumbal.
Salisse sent Cumbal to the floor with an uppercut. Cumbal died from a hemorrhage, induced by the blow.
Morin supported Salisse's testimony that Cumbal threatened them with a club. The jury recommended and the court imposed a suspended sentence.

Fight Like Bloomin' Yanks!

Jem Mace was a great boxer, so was Charley Mitchell, and a score of other British fistcufters, but none of John Bull's modern battlers even approached world championship class without adapting to a considerable degree the so-called American (slam bang) style of fighting.
Jackie (Kid) Berg, London's illustrious "Whitechapel Express," is in striking distance of the lightweight crown because his ring tactics are those of a bloomin' Yank. Berg tears in and bears down from bell to bell like a miniature Harry Greb. He swarms over opposition, hitting constantly with both hands. He can block, smother, ride, and take a punching in the stress of carrying the fight to his opponent. The way he overwhelmed Tony Canzoneri at the New York Garden recently bodes ill for Mushy Callahan, junior welter champ, when he clashes with "Biff Bang" Berg in London.
Berg, of course, is what Gene Tunney might call the antithesis of the old English boxing school of which

Pittsburgh and West Virginia Railroad Given Right To Erect Six-Mile Branch

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Over the protest of the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Interstate Commerce Commission today authorized the Pittsburgh & West Virginia Railroad, controlled by the Taplin Brothers, of Cleveland, to construct a six-mile branch from a point on the Conneville extension near its crossing at Pigeon Creek, to a connection with the Donora Southern at Baird, Pa.

The commission stipulated that construction must begin on or before July 1 next and be completed within two years. It is estimated the work will cost $1,397,000 and will be financed either from current cash or by the sale of bonds.

The commission said its action in this case should not be construed as a finding in favor of the construction and operation of a line to serve the industries at Monessen or elsewhere, "nor should it raise any presumption as to our view regarding the propriety of any existing or proposed arrangement for the performance of terminal service by the Donora Southern or for its compensation."

In addition to the advantages of completion with the Pennsylvania as it might be able to offer, the applicant claimed certain transportation benefits, principally through the use of the proposed branch as a part of a route between Donora and points to the south and southeast. Traffic between Donora and Baltimore, for example, now moves by way of the Pennsylvania through Harrisburg, a distance of 356 miles.

By way of the applicant line to Conneville and the Western Maryland beyond, the distance would be 285 miles, a reduction of 71 miles. There would be similar or greater reductions in distance to Cumberland, Hagerstown and other points in the southeast with the usual present routes over the Pennsylvania and its connections.

The Pennsylvania claimed that it had on its own tracks ample ground for additional industries at Donora and that its Monongahela line is at present operated much below its capacity.

May Change Law On Disorderly Houses

Council Discusses Title Of Law And May Make Change Soon

City law 3728, known as the "Disorderly House" ordinance was one of the main topics before city council which met at the city building this morning. The measure was brought up by Councilman Clayton Reeves. Alleged abuse was cited and denied. It was indicated that the present law will be rewritten and a new title given.

The discussion finally narrowed down to "what constitutes a disorderly house" and whether or not alleged "disorderly houses" have been raised without warrants.

Under the present title, Councilmen Genkinger, Reeves and Treser thought it was a stigma placed on persons arrested, as generally the public construes a "disorderly house" as one wherein prostitution has occurred.

Solicitor White said a policeman could enter any home in which he heard disorder. He denied they had the right to search a home without a warrant which brought on a question of whether homes had been entered without warrants.

Mayor W. H. Gillespie explained one alleged instance by stating neighbors had made complaints and when police investigated found the door unlocked, walked in, and violation of the law was found.

There is no difference between Councilmen Genkinger, Reeves and Treser is erroneous as common belief places women in those houses in the same category as "prostitutes" as Genkinger explained.

Solicitor White during the discussion said the ordinance could be worded to suit all and it was agreed to let the ordinance rest for the present without any change.

No Unrest Noted In Spain, Report

Reports Of Revolutionary Outbreaks In Spain Are Greatly Exaggerated

(International News Service)
MADRID, Feb. 14.—Reports of revolutionary outbreaks in various provinces of Spain appear to be incorrect, according to information in authoritative circles here today.

A check by telephone and telegraph of the principal provinces revealed that in general the country is quiet, although there is some unrest due chiefly to republican propaganda.

Reports of nationwide disturbances by unemployed appear to have been exaggerated, government officials pointing out that a few parades and demonstrations by jobless were the only incidents of this sort. A few hundred employees staged a parade through the streets of Madrid yesterday, carrying slogans emblazoned "we want work."

Police did not find it necessary to interfere with the demonstration. There was no looting or shops or other lawless incidents, according to the authorities.

Steel Stocks Gain In Early Market Trading

By W. S. COUSINS
International News Service Financial Editor
NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The steel stocks and the favorite utilities forged ahead to new high price levels in the early trading today, but the bullish steam roller struck a snag in the heavy selling of scattered industrial stocks, particularly where the advance has been lively.

United States Steel was the star performer, racing along to a new high price level above 187 in active trading. American Can sold at 146 for the first time since the break and Westinghouse struck 175 to the accompaniment of new rumors of an intended split-up of the stock. Brooklyn Union Gas was heavily bought around 158, up about 4 points from yesterday.

New price cutting in crude oil and gasoline frightened off the timid bulls from the oil stocks. Standard Oil shares declined fractionally and Sinclair, one of the leading independents, sold below 23 1/2 for the first time this year.

A block of 10,000 shares of Barnsdall, also a leading producer, sold at the year's lowest price at 21 1/2. The bears renewed their attack on Sin-mons and forced that stock down 3 1/2 points to a new low at 65 1/2, but a good recovery followed early weakness in this favorite. Gillette was weak. Chrysler reacted sharply to 37 1/2 on publication of annual statement showing about $5 per share earned last year.

Republic Iron and Steel sold above 78 for a new gain of 5 points. Vanadium jumped 6 1/2 to 69 and Bethlehem topped 102 in active trading. Call money was in good supply at 4 percent.

C. J. Moynihan Condemns Land Policy Of U. S.

Seeks Return To Principles Of Clay, Webster And Hayne

SAYS GOVERNMENT
ENCROACHES ON STATES

(International News Service)
DENVER, Col., Feb. 14. — Charles J. Moynihan, Colorado, member of President Hoover's public land commission, has labeled the United States land policy as "intolerable and demands a return to the public land principle of Webster, Clay and Hayne. Administration of the mineral and subsurface rights of public lands by the federal government will mean an indefinite period of federal "landlordism," according to Moynihan, a prominent attorney.

"For more than a century it was the policy of the government to act as a trustee for public lands—to hold them temporarily and release them as rapidly as possible to private ownership," Moynihan asserts.

"Under that system the middle-west was settled years earlier than it might have been otherwise. Then in 1920, the policy suddenly changed. A system of landlordism was set up by the federal leasing act. The effect of the act was to create a little group of Western States—including Colorado—entirely different in their system of land administration from all the other states. In the states east of the Rockies the federal government relinquished the lands to private owners as quickly as possible. In the Rocky Mountains states, however, the leasing act placed the federal government in position of a permanent landlord.

"It is an intolerable system to have an outside agency, such as a bureau in Washington, administering lands within the sovereign states of the region."

The public land matter is only one of many in which the government has encroached on the province of the various states, according to Moynihan.

Visions Of Gold Vanish Once More

HARRISBURG, Feb. 14.—Native gold and massive copper sulphide are rare in Pennsylvania, so rare that when the Bureau of Topographic and Geologic Survey of the Pennsylvania Department of Internal Affairs received a package of minerals with a letter from a correspondent in a small town in Bradford county saying they were found on his farm, he was immediately asked where his farm was located and if the specimen were found in Pennsylvania.

A piece of quartz the size of a hickory nut and filled with fine particles of native gold is interesting at any time but gold has never been found that way in Pennsylvania.

In a reply just received the man says his farm where the minerals were found is in Northern Ontario, dashing any hope that the specimens same from Pennsylvania but again justifying the conclusion that copper are unlikely to be found in Pennsylvania except as they are recovered as a by-product in mining other minerals. Pennsylvania actually produced over $700,000 worth of copper, $20,000 worth of gold, and over $400,000 worth of silver in 1928, but all as by-products in the mining of a million tons of other ores.

The survey bureau, Secretary of Internal Affairs James F. Woodward stated, is always willing to identify mineral specimens free, but cannot make assays or analyses. In many cases a glance or a simple test is all that is necessary to recognize a mineral, even though it may be curious or strange to the finder and his neighbors.

Following the hunting seasons the Geological Survey usually gets an increased number of specimens for identification, because many nature lovers are in the mountains at such times, and pick up curious looking rocks. The survey bureau is glad to have specimens sent here because thereby new knowledge of the distribution of mineral may be acquired.

1929 License Tags Are Still Good

HARRISBURG, Feb. 14.—Pennsylvania motor vehicle tags are "good" in the Belgian Congo, motor vehicles commissioner Benjamin G. Eynon learned when he received a photograph from that far-away section of Africa. The snapshot showed an automobile bearing Pennsylvania tags 15-141, standing before a mud and bamboo garage having a thatched roof.

The tags in question were issued in 1929 to Dr. C. K. Becker of Boyertown. Dr. Becker went to the Congo last August. From the port at which he landed he drove 800 miles into the interior of Africa, where he is administering to the natives.

Heat May Prove Deadly In Winter

Deputy Secretary Of Health
Says Proper Temperature Is 72 Degrees

HARRISBURG, Feb. 14.—Dr. J. Bruce McCreary, deputy secretary of health, today warned the people of Pennsylvania regarding the hazardous practice of keeping homes overheated.

"Reports reaching this office indicate the annual toll from pneumonia and the general prevalence of colds and other diseases of the respiratory system," Dr. McCreary said. "While of course there are many causes for these conditions careless conduct on the part of the individual plays an important part. And while there are no available figures to fortify the assertion I feel confident that a fair proportion of the carelessness which results in colds or worse is directly traceable to the unwise pampering of the body by maintaining a mid-summer heat indoors when it is zero outside. Undoubtedly more people in Pennsylvania die in this way because of heat than they do as a result of the direct rays of the sun in the summer time.

"The rigors of winter demand the development and maintenance of bodily vigor and vitality. A super-heated atmosphere in home or office is likely to have the exact opposite effect. Eighty degrees of temperature at this season of the year is all right at Palm Beach but it is all wrong in one's home. Sixty-eight to 72 degrees is the health temperature and the safe one. A rigid observance of this requirement will tremendously cut down the present incidence of colds and associated ailments. Unfortunately health departments cannot regulate personal matters of this kind. Individuals, however, for their health's and safety's sake might well heed this advice."
